1339.

Sept. 5. Windsor.

Pardon, in consideration of his having gone beyond the seas in the king's company and stayed there until now, to Thomas son of Adam othe Rodes for the death of John de Chellowe, and of any consequent outlawry. By p.s.

Sept. 15. Windsor.

Thomas atte Marche has made petition to the king that, whereas he came to Southampton three and a half years ago and has made stay there ever since and not before, and he is now required by the council to stay in person in the said town and find certain armed men for its defence, and whereas he has business to attend to in divers parts of the realm, the king would grant that, on his sending one man well armed to serve for him with the other men to be found by him for the defence of the town, he may attend to his business elsewhere, and the king, in consideration of the good place which he has long held for him in the said town has granted his petition and taken him into his protection for one year in his trading about the realm.

By C.

June 18. Berkhamstead. Pardon, at the request of queen Philippa, to Joan Sewale for all homicides, felonies, robberies and trespasses against the peace of Edward II. or of the present king whereof she is appealed, and of any consequent waiver.

By p.s.

Sept. 24. Windsor.

John de Luttyleton and William de Freston, canons of the priory of Merton, bringing news of the death of Thomas, the last prior of that place, have letters for the sub-prior and convent of licence to elect.

By letter of the Keeper.

July 20. Kennington.

Grant to John de Puryton of the office of second engrosser of the Exchequer of Dublin during good behaviour, provided that John atte Hagh, who holds the office by the king's appointment, will demise the same according to the form of such appointment.

Vacated because otherwise below.

The like, without the clause beginning 'provided that.'

By p.s.

July 11. Berkhamstead.

Appointment of Robert Power as chief baron of the Exchequer of Dublin, during pleasure.

By letter of the Keeper.

July 12. Berkhamstead.

Whereas Robert Power, king's clerk, who has been appointed chief baron of the Exchequer of Dublin, by the king's appointment had a certain term not yet expired in the office of chancellor of the said Exchequer to which the king has now appointed Master Robert de Pyncebek, king's clerk; in consideration of his services in divers offices which he has discharged in those parts, the king grants that he shall hold the said office of chief baron until the end of the term for which he holds that of chancellor and then during pleasure.

By letter of the Keeper.

Sept. 16. Windsor.

Appointment of William de Radenore to the bailiwick of the forestership of Parkhurst, Elde Park, Bordewod and Westryg, in the Isle of Wight, during pleasure, if it be now in the king's hands or so soon as it shall come into them.

Mandate in pursuance to the keeper of the forest on this side Trent or to such as supplies his place in the forest of the Isle of Wight.

By C

Oct. 13. Windsor.

John son of Thadeus Donat, staying in England, has letters nominating John de Puryton as his attorney in Ireland for two years.

Thomas de Eves[am] received the attorneys.

MEMBRANE 21.

Sept. 20. Windsor.

Presentation of John de Rasen to the church of Cretynge St. Olave in the diocese of Norwich, in the king's gift by reason of the temporalities of the...