Collectors of these should be appointed by him, of Thomas de Upton to the office of controller as well of the custom of wines, woolls, hides and wooll-fells as of the custom of 3d. in the pound and other petty customs and prests in the port of the said town, during pleasure, with such wages as the controllers in the ports of England have used to receive, on condition that he write his rolls with his own hand, stay there continually and execute the office himself.

By the Keeper & C.

Whereas it appears that the men of North Wales do not use measures, as bushels, gallons, ells and the like with which corn, wine, cheese and other things are sold, and weights agreeing with the king's standards, whereby the people are very much oppressed, and the king on the advice of the council has ordained that weights and measures in agreement with the standards in England and no others shall be used there in buying and selling, and that new weights and measures shall be made and sent to those parts for use there; he has appointed Richard de Kynberle to the office of the market there, during pleasure, with such fee as the council shall ordain.

By the Keeper & C.

Appointment, in view of the order that the customs at Caernarvan shall be collected for the king's use, of Nicholas de Ellerker to the office of the tronage of woolls in the port of the said town, during pleasure, with such fees as the king's weighers (tronatores) in the ports of England have used to receive.

By the Keeper & C.

Appointment, pursuant to an order made on the advice of the council that a remembrancer of the exchequer of Caernarvan should be appointed, of William de Shaldcford as remembrancer of the said exchequer, during pleasure, with such fee as the council shall ordain.

By the Keeper & C.

Appointment, pursuant to a like order that a baron of the exchequer of Caernarvan should be appointed, of the said William as baron of that exchequer, during pleasure, with such fee as the council shall ordain.

By the Keeper & C.

Signification to A. bishop of Winchester of the royal assent to the election of John de Lutelynton, a canon of the house of St. Mary, Merton, of the order of St. Augustine, to be prior of that place.

By letter of the Keeper.

Pardon to Simon Syer of his outlawry in the county of Hertford for non-appearance in the court of King's Bench to answer touching a plea of Thomas de Lincoln of a trespass committed against him at Treyng, on certificate by Richard de Wylnghby, chief justice, that he has surrendered to the Marshalsea prison on account of such outlawry.

Exemplification under the seal now in use of letters patent, dated 15 January, 4 Edward III. appointing Henry, bishop of St. Davids, to the custody during pleasure of the castle, forest and land of la Nerber and of Cordehelegh in South Wales, escheats by the forfeiture of Roger de Mortuo Mari, late earl of March.

Licence for the alienation in mortmain by Roger Turtle of Bristol to the abbots and convent of Tewkesbury of a garden in the suburb of Bristol, to find a secular chaplain to celebrate divine service in the church of the priory of St. James, Bristol, a cell of the abbey, for the souls of the said Roger, Isabella his late wife, their ancestors and heirs and the mayors and burgesses of Bristol, as well as to have his anniversary kept in the church of the priory after his death by the monks there, to pay to the monks celebrating divine service at such anniversary 10s. by name of a pittance, and to distribute on that day for his soul a penny apiece to thirteen poor persons.

By fine of 40s. Gloucester.