his brother hold for life of the king's grant, shall remain to him in fee, by the service of a pair of gilt spurs yearly.

Grant in like terms to Thomas de la Pole and Edmund de la Pole, sons of the said William, of the manor of Kayngham in Holderness to hold to them and their heirs with all its appurtenances, by a like service. Witnesses, John, archbishop of Canterbury, Richard, bishop of Durham, Henry, bishop of Lincoln, Henry, earl of Derby, William de Bohun, earl of Northampton, Henry de Ferraris, John Darcy, steward of the household, and others.

Vacated by surrender because they quit-claimed the manor to the king for a pardon of the debts of their father, and the letters patent to the said William herein are enrolled in the twenty-eighth year in the month of November.

Grant in fee by the service of a pair of gilt spurs yearly to the said William of the manors and towns of Bondebrusteyk, Ravensere, Hedone, Barowe, Paghelflete, Sprotieye, Lelle Dyke, and Elstanwyk and the wapentake of Holderness with a farm called the serjeanty of the crown, members of the king's manor of Brustwyk, 210 acres of land and 92 acres of meadow of the demesne lands of the manor of Brustwyk in Skeklyng and in the said towns of Lelle Dyke and Elstanwyk, with the appurtenances. Witnesses as above.

Vacated by surrender because he quit-claimed the whole to the king and the king granted him in fee 400 marks yearly of the ancient custom of wool, hides and wool-fells in the port of Kyngeston-on-Hull, and released to him all actions which he might have in respect of debts and accounts as appears by letters patent of the twenty-eighth year in the month of November.

Pardon, in consideration of his good service beyond the seas and elsewhere, to Richard de Grymesby for the death of John de la Launde, and all other trespasses against the peace of Edward II. or of the present king, and of any consequent outlawry.

Promise to Bertrand de Insula, in consideration of his affection for the king whereby he is moved to assist him against Philip de Valesio, claiming to be king of France, and of his intention on this account to give him his castle in Kirsyn, called 'viscounte de ... rayne,' that whenever the king either by way of peace or by the strong hand recover what has been taken from him in the duchy [of Aquitaine], he will assign to him in fee the vicounte of Lomayne, which the said Philip has usurped, and that, if by reason of his aid to the king he lose castles, lands and rents he shall have compensation until he or his heirs recover their own, and that the king will not make peace with Philip unless the said Bertrand and his men in the king's service be expressly included in that peace. Pardon also of any forfeiture of his castles, lands and rents pertaining to the king by reason of his previous adherence to Philip or the king's enemies.

Grant in fee, in consideration of his readiness to help the king against the said Philip, to Gaston de Insula of a moiety of the castle and town of Vienne, pertaining to the king in right of the said duchy, now unjustly held by Philip.

Grant, for the like consideration, to the same of 2,000 pounds of petits Tournois yearly out of the issues of the duchy by the hands of the constable of Bordeaux, for life.