Membrane 19.

June 5. Ratification of the estate of Master Simon de Cherryanges, king's clerk, as parson of the church of Egglesclyf on the collation of the bishop of Durham. By K.

June 6. Appointment of John de Molyns, John Sturmy, William Stury, Nicholas de Tynghale, William de la Pole and Gawin Corder to receive information touching complaints by the good men of Flanders of losses and injuries inflicted by the king's subjects on merchants of Spain and other parts coming to Flanders peaceably with their merchandise, contrary to the form of the peace between the king and complaiments, and to settle all claims in respect thereof.

June 8. Appointment of John Sturmy and William Stury, in the place of Henry de Ferariis, the chamberlain, and Reginald de Donyngton, clerk, who are otherwise engaged in the king's service, in the late commission to the said Henry, Reginald and Thomas de Bradeston to settle with the good men of Flanders at Ghent all complaints touching breaches of the peace between the king and the said men.

June 27. Appointment of William Stury, John Sturmy, Gawin Corder, de Hugate and Henry Russel of Coventre to treat with the good men of Ghent, Bruges and Ypres for making good losses inflicted by the king's subjects on men of Flanders, merchants of Catalonia and Spain and others.

June 26. Grant to John Acreman of Bruges of 10l. yearly out of the customs in the port of Kyngeston-upon-Hull, for life or until he receive 10l. yearly of land and rent.

June 19. Hampton, knight, and Thomas de Evesham, clerk, as his attorneys until Christmas to sue out executions of recognisances due to him and receive all sums arising therefrom.

June 20. Grant in fee to John de Molyns of the advowson of the church of Trenge, co. Hertford.

June 14. Promise to William, lord of Brimursburgh, who lately imprisoned the king's beloved Baldus Orlandini, James Gerardi, Thomas Peru[che and] Bartholomew de Peruchiis in the belief that they were the king's enemies and adherents of Philip de Valesio, self-styled king of France, to preserve him from all losses and perils incurred by such imprisonment.

June 25. Appointment of Robert de Sadyngton as deputy treasurer during the absence from England of Master William la Zouche, king's clerk, dean of York and the king's treasurer, who has been summoned to the king beyond the seas, or until further order.

The like of Richard de Feriby, canon of London.

June 19. Promise to Henry Wale, Thidemann de Revele and Hertewm de Beke, merchants of Almain, to whom Gerard Bonenseigne and Dinus Forset, merchants of the society of the Bardi, and Boniface [and] Thomas, merchants of the society of the Peruzzi, are bound in the king's name in 1,035l. 5s. 4d., payable at the feast of St. Ja[mes] that in case the said merchants make default, the king will pay the said sum.

By K.