1339.

Pardon, in consideration of his daily service at the king’s side, to Robert de Maule, king’s yeoman, of the rent of 40L reserved to the king in the letters patent whereby he lately granted to him for life the castle of Bollesover.

By K.

July 27. Vilvorde.

Appointment of Anthony Bache and Thomas de Berewico, to contract and receive for the king loans to the extent of 40,000L.

By K.

Protection for Robert de Uppesale, who, for a sum of money paid to the king for custom and subsidy on 300 sacks of wool, has licence to export that quantity of wool from Kyngeston-upon-Hull quit of custom and subsidy, and for his attorneys and the wool.

By K.

Whereas the king lately appointed John de Bradeston, king’s yeoman, to the custody during pleasure of the hundred of Wormelowe in Irchenefeld, at the usual rent, he has now, for the special affection which he bears him, appointed him to the same during good behaviour so that he shall not be removed without lawful cause, to be certified to the king wherever he shall be before his removal, and the sheriff of Hereford shall not meddle with the custody further than by receiving the rent.

By K.

Notification to H. bishop of Lincoln and others interested of the revocation of the king’s late presentation of Master Robert de Chekewell, king’s clerk, to the church of Wykingeston, as the church is not void.

By [K.]

Ratification of the estate of Master Roger Butetourt, king’s clerk, as parson of the said church.

By K.

July 5. Antwerp.

Licence for John de Moubray, knight, to encoif Henry de la Dale and William de Wolde, clerks, of the manors of Thresk, Hovyngham, Burton in Lonesdale and Kyrkeby Malesard, with the chace of Nidderdale, co. York, and the manor of Eppeworth with all his other lands in the island of Axyholm, co. Lincoln, said to be held in chief, with all knight’s fees, advowsons of churches, chaces, warrens and other appurtenances, and for them to re-grant these in tail to him and Joan, his wife, with remainder to his right heirs.

By K.

July 5. Antwerp.

Promise to William de Monte Acuto, earl of Salisbury, the marshal, to save him, his heirs and executors harmless against all persons to whom he has given bond in the king’s behalf.

The like, under date of Aspre, 20 September.

By K.

12—14 EDWARD III.

Membrane [16].

July 5. Antwerp.

Pardon, with the assent of the council attending the king, to the same earl of all his debts at the Exchequer, and grant that after his death the executors of his will shall freely dispose of his goods and the king will not take these into his hands nor meddle with them, but will go to his heirs and lands for anything that shall then be owing to the crown.

By K.

The like, under date of Aspre, 20 September.

By K.

July 5. Antwerp.

General pardon to him for all trespasses against the peace of Edward II. or of the present king, breaking parks and closes, hunting in these and forests, chaces and warrens, and fishing in stews, and of consequent outlawries; and grant to him of any of his goods forfeited for the same. Pardon also for all trespasses of vert and venison, and of consequent outlawries.

By K.

Grant in fee, in consideration of his losses in the two years in which he was mayor of London because merchant strangers, from whom the mayors of the city derive their chief emolument, dared not then come there by reason of the war and his labours and charges in the king’s service beyond