Grant, in consideration of prompt aid often rendered to the king and especially since he has been on this side the seas, to the citizens and merchants of York that in their city there shall be collectors of customs and subsidy, as well as toners and a controller and a cocket seal as in other ports of the realm where wools, hides, wool-fells and other goods and merchandise are exported and imported, that all such merchandise shall be loaded or unloaded there on payment of custom and subsidies, and that whenever great ships on account of too shallow water cannot get to their city, wools, hides, wool-fells and other goods duly customed there may be taken thence in small ships or boats and put on board in such ships at Selby or Fawksite. By K.

Appointment of Nicholas de Scorby and Walter de Kelsterne as collectors of the great and petty customs in the port of the said city, and of the subsidy on wools, hides and wool-fells, with the custody of one part of the cocket seal there, during pleasure. By K.

Appointment of Robert de Lyndeseye to the office of the tonnage of wools in the said city during pleasure. By K.

Grant to Nicholas de Appelby of the office of controller of the king's custom, as well the great as the petty, and of the subsidy on wools, hides and wool-felle, in the port of the city of York, during pleasure. By K.

Grant, in consideration of his having been taken prisoner in the king's service and imprisoned by the enemy in the castle of Rypplemond until he paid a large sum for his ransom, to Simon Symeon, king's yeoman, that the manor of Grafton, co. Northampton, held for life by Gawan Corder and Eufemia his wife, shall remain to him in fee, with the knight's fees, advowsoens of churches, parks, woods, warrens, liberties, free customs and all other appurtenances. By K.

Protection for P. cardinal priest of St. Praxed's, and B. cardinal deacon of St. Mary's in Aquiro, coming to the king. [Fœdera.] By K.

Pardon, in consideration of his charges in the king's service, to Reginald de Conductu of all that he owes at the Exchequer, whether of the time of Edward II. or of the present king. By K.

Grant to Norman Darcy of an annuity of 30L at the Exchequer until the king grant him an equivalent of land and rent for life. By K.

Grant to William de Monte Acuto, earl of Salisbury, the marshal, of the advowson of the priory of Montacute. [Fœdera.] By K.

Grant to the said earl, that whereas the king lately granted to him in fee the crest (tymbriam) of the eagle, which the king has borne as his own, and the reversion of the manors of Wodeton, Frome Whitfeld, Mersh[wode], Worth and Pole, pertaining to the king by the forfeiture of John Mautravers, after the death of Robert son of Payn, to support the honour of bearing the same, and the earl has granted the crest to the king's son whom he lifted from the holy font, the said manors of . . . [Mersh]wode, Worth and Pole, shall nevertheless remain to him in fee after the death of the said Robert. [Cf. Charter Roll 9 Edward III. No. 17.]

Charter confirming a grant in fee by letters patent to William de la Pole, in part satisfaction of 500 marks yearly of land and rent, of the manors of Brustwyk and Skypse with their appurtenances, and granting to him 260 marks yearly, the balance of the said 500 marks, out of the customs in