Sept. 29. Valenciennes. Pardon, in consideration of his service on this side the seas, to William son of Walter Clerc of Eyham of the king’s suit against him for the death of John Goldal of Poumfrayt, with general pardon. By K.

Oct. 4. Marquion. Safe conduct until Friday for such number of persons to treat of peace as the king’s kinsman, John, duke of Brabant, shall deem expedient, to a fixed place two or three miles away from where the king is. [Federas.]

Oct. 14. Mont-Martin. In consideration of the great merits of Thomas de Ponynges, knight, tenant in chief, who met his death in his service, and the affection which he had for him, the king has taken the fealty of his son and heir, Michael de Ponynges, although he is still under age, granting to him the lands he would have had if of full age, which ought to pertain to the king by reason of his minority, with all issues from the day of his father’s death. He has granted also that he may select the person whom he will marry with the king’s advice herein, so that he will have the marriage which should also belong to the king. By K.

Mandate in pursuance to William Trussel, escheator on this side Trent.

Oct. 13. Mont-Martin. Ratification of the assumption by the king’s kinsman, Laurence de Hastynge, as son of the elder sister of Aymer de Valencia, late earl palatine of Pembroke, of the name of earl of Pembroke, with the prerogative and honour of earl palatine in the lands inherited from the earl. [Federas.]

Oct. 16. Origny. Grant, for his better support in the estate of banneret, which he has taken from the king as a reward for his services, to Thomas de Bradeston of an annuity of 500 marks at the Exchequer until he or his heirs receive in fee an equivalent of land or rent. By K.
