1339.
Nov. 2. Brussels. Protection until Easter for Godfrey Danekyn, his men, servants and all whom he will bring to the king, and his goods. By K.
Nov. 19. Antwerp. Grant, in consideration of his great services to the king on this side the seas, to Gabriel de Monte Magno of 50l. yearly out of the customs in the port of London until he or his heirs be provided in fee with an equivalent of land or rent in England. By K.

The like to Matthew Canathoen.

Vacated because surrendered, and at the request of the said Matthew the 50l. are transferred to John de Wold and Tydemann de Lymbergh by letters patent of the month of February, 18 Edward III.

Nov. 13. Antwerp. Appointment of William de Monte Acuto, earl of Salisbury, the marshal, Henry de Ferraris, the chamberlain, and Geoffroy le Scrope and Maurice de Berkle, the king's secretaries, to treat with Lewis, count of Flanders, of espousals and marriage between the first-born son of the count and Isabella, the king's daughter; of alliance with the count and men of Flanders; of renewal of their ancient privileges and grant of new ones; of restitution of their castles and lands; of grants to the more powerful of the king's friends among them of castles, lands, pensions and fees; and of release of processes against them promulgated against them by the Apostolic See at the instance of the kings of France. [Feder.] By K.

Nov. 19. Antwerp. In consideration of the great subvention made by Gabriel de Monte Magno, Richard de Monte Magno, James Canathoen, Matthew Canathoen, Matthew de Cathena, Obertus Deatus, James de Roka, William Boyer, Raphel Roier, John de Ponte, Anthony Turke and John Berchandi, merchants of the society of the Leopardi, for his service since he has been on this side of the seas, and thinking that the stay of them and their fellows within the realm would be advantageous to him and his people, the king with the assent of those attending him has taken the said merchants, their men, servants and goods, into the special protection of him and his heirs for ever, promising to defend them as his own household and granting them the same liberties as the citizens of London and dwellers in that city have, and other privileges specified in the entry. By K.

Nov. 22. Antwerp. Grant to Amadeus, lord of New Yssel (de Sala Nova), that, although by law and the custom of the realm he ought not to be admitted to the inheritance of his relatives within the realm because he was born without that realm, yet on the testimony of Hugh de Jebennis and other nobles that he is lawful son and heir of Beatrice, lady of New Yssel, who held lands in fee within the realm, and at the special request of the said Hugh as well as in consideration of his own good service on this side the seas, he may lawfully claim and hold what he would have inherited from his said mother and other relatives if he had been born in the realm. By K.

Nov. 22. Antwerp. Appointment of Bartholomew de Burghassb, William de Kyldebesby, William de Cusance and Master Robert de Askeby to raise a loan for the king to the amount of 40,000l. By K.

The like of Master Robert de Askeby and William Inglis under date of 2 December.

Membrane 8.

Nov. 18. Antwerp. Inspeximus and confirmation of an indenture [in French], under the seal of Gascony, dated at Bordeaux, ... March 1338, between Oliver de Ingham, knight, seneschal of Gascony, as appears by a royal letter under the Great Seal, dated at Gaywood, 29 July, 5 Edward III. and Aymar Falconis of Dauphiny (du Dalfynat), witnessing that the latter is