12—14 EDWARD III.

Membrane 6—cont.

Dec. 3. Antwerp.
Grant for life, at the request of the king's brother, William, marquis of Juliers, whose domestic he is, to Godfrey, called 'Frambach de Leght,' serjeant of the king's arms (servienti armorum), of such stipend or wages as shall be paid to the other serjeants of the arms of the king's majesty, whether he be present with him or absent from him.

The like at the request of Reynold, duke of Gueldres, to James de Lyven.

Dec. 4. Antwerp.
Grant for life to Adam de Walton, king's serjeant-at-arms, of two robes a year of the suit of the king's serjeants-at-arms, to wit a winter robe and a summer robe, or 2 marks for a winter robe and 20s. for a summer robe, with 12d. a day for wages, whether present at court or absent from it, by the hands of the keeper of the wardrobe.

The like to the following serjeants-at-arms:—

John Ward.
William del Wode.
Richard de Cortenhale.
Robert de Ledered.

Grant for twelve years, for his good service in the army lately in France, to John de Gaulesdene of the constableship of the castle of Walyngford and the stewardship of the honor of Walyngford, with the usual fees and wages.

Mandate to Ralph de Ferrariis, or the person supplying his place, for livery of the above.

Appointment of Raymond Seguyn as the king's chief butler, during pleasure.

Mandate to Hugh de Ulseby for livery to him of the king's wines and all other things relating to the office, which are in his custody.

Dec. 6. Antwerp.
Protection with clause volumus, until Midsummer, for Ralph de Brok staying on the king's service on this side the seas.

Exemption for life, in consideration of his long labours in the service of queen Isabella, the king and queen Philippa, of Thomas Chamberleyrn of Tettebury, king's clerk, from being put on assizes, juries or recognisances, and from appointment as mayor, sheriff, escheator, coroner or other bailiff or minister of the king, against his will, from prises, purveyances and other charges made by purveyors of the household or any others, and from carriages and liveries of houses within his households wherever these be taken by marshals or other ministers of the king or any others.

Dec. 7. Antwerp.
Acknowledgement of the receipt from Richard Colle of Berwick on Tweed, by the hands of Thomas de Hatfeld, king's clerk, of a loan of 100l. for the king's service on this side the seas; with promise to repay the same at the Purification.

The like with respect to a loan from John Hamond citizen of London, of 100 marks for the same service, received by the hands of Thomas Dolsey.

Bond to Conrad Clippynges, John de la Wolde and Tirus his brother, for the payment in the city of London at the Purification of 200l. lent by them to the king.

Dec. 15. Antwerp.
Whereas Henry de Ferrariis, William de Kyldesby and Master Robert de Askby have received certain sums from merchants of Newcastle-upon-Tyne, to wit from John de la Chambre, 200l. from Robert de Penereth, 200l. from John de Bedyk, 661. 13s. 4d. and from John de Stanope, 60l. for the king's use, as by their letters obligatory in the possession of those merchants appears; the king acknowledges by these presents that the said