12—14 EDWARD III.

MEMBRANE 5—cont.

Dec. 10. Antwerp. Pardon to Giles de Bello Campo of all accounts and arrears of accounts with all debts, due by him for the time in which he was constable of the castle of Scardeburgh and keeper of the town of Scardeburgh. By K.

Dec. 14. Antwerp. Promise to Constantine Smythusen, merchant of Almain, who for 200 marks in hand paid for the king’s service on this side the seas has licence to buy 100 sacks of wool in the realm and export the same from Kyngeston-upon-Hull quit of custom and subsidy, to make good any loss he may sustain in case he or his attorneys be prevented by the king’s ministers or others from exporting the wool. By K.

Dec. 6. Antwerp. Grant, for his long service and bodily perils and losses endured in such service in these days, to Guy de Brian, king’s yeoman, of an annuity of 40l. at the Exchequer for life or until he receive an equivalent of land or rent. By K.

Dec. 15. Antwerp. Bond to James Normanni and Gaillard Falabryne, merchants of Lucca, dwelling at Brugges, in 400 marks sterling, received from them in Antwerp as a loan in gold florins, to be paid in London on the octave of St. Hilary. For their greater security, Bartholomew de Burghassh the elder and William de Cusancia, king’s clerk, have set their seals to these presents.

Dec. 25. Antwerp. Grant to William Hervy the younger, king’s clerk, of the first void church in Ireland in the king’s gift not exceeding the yearly value of 20l. which he will accept. By K.

Dec. 25. Antwerp. Commission to Robert Sauvage, the king’s steward of Ulster, on information that some merchants, subjects of the king, have brought merchandise and victuals to enemies of him in Scotland now holding the castles of Rothersay, Enerkyp and Loghdon against him, to arrest such persons in his bailiwick as he shall find by inquisition or other lawful manner to have aided the enemy in this way and detain them until they make satisfaction for their trespass or the king order otherwise. By K.

Dec. 25. Antwerp. Commission to Robert Sauvage, William Hervy the elder and William Hervy the younger to enquire touching the king’s wines stored in the castle of Cragfergos, which are reported to have been sold and brought into Scotland without due satisfaction having been made him for the same, taking account from the sellers thereof touching the persons to whom these have been sold and the price, and to certify the king herein with all speed. By K.

Dec. 25. Antwerp. Whereas Robert de Ufford, earl of Suffolk, Henry de Ferraris, the chamberlain, Bartholomew de Burgh[ersh] the elder and William de Cusancia, clerk, are bound to William son of John Muschet of Fenditton, co. Cambridge, and William Talemache of Gaysle, merchants of England, by a recognisance before Geoffrey Lescrope at Antwerp, on 18 December last, in 1,000£. for wool bought for the king’s use, to be void if they shall pay in London half at the Purification and half at the Annunciation next 654l. 4s. 6d.; the king for their indemnity promises to pay the said sum at the dates specified. By K.

Dec. 29. Antwerp. Grant, in consideration of his labours in the king’s service especially since he has been on this side the seas, to William de Ravendale, king’s clerk, of the custody of the hanaper of the Chancery, to hold from Easter next for life. By K.

MEMBRANE 4.

Dec. 15. Antwerp. Promise to Nicholas Usus Maris and Anthony Bache, who have dealt in the king’s name with Francis Drizatorne and his fellows for wares and merchandise required for his service, to deliver to them within two months