Dec. 31. Bond to Theudericus, lord of Faulkenmont, in 30,000 florins of Florence payable at the feasts of the Nativity of St. John the Baptist and St. Remigius next to make good horses and for loss and interest which he could require of the king. By K.

Dec. 28. Confirmation of the engagement by Oliver de Ingham, seneschal of Gascony, of John Eynard, lord of Chalonn (de Chalanno), for the king's service in peace and war with forty men-at-arms whereof six shall be knights. The said Oliver had received this homage and oath of fealty by reason of such engagement as well as of the castle and place of Arnay (de Arneyo) which he has acknowledged that he holds of the king, and promised him in the king's name an annuity of 100 marks for life and other things more fully contained in an indenture already confirmed by the king, and he has now assigned to him for life, in part satisfaction of the annuity the bailiwick of Brasseux, with the places and bastides of Arjuzanx (de Advisano), Montpazier, Monthosier (Montis Astrici) and Sabres, the mill of Arjuzanx excepted, as of the value of 227 pounds of Bordeaux and the balance out of the issues of the duchy by the hands of the constable of Bordeaux, until this last be assigned to him on certain places in the duchy. By K.

Dec. 3. Licence for William Lengleis, king's yeoman, to impark his place called 'Hegheveld,' containing 65 acres of land, notwithstanding that it is within the forest of Ingelwode, provided that he make no deer-leap there. By K.

Dec. 29. Request to the seneschal of the king of Jerusalem and Sicily in the counties of Provence and Forcalquier, to release a sequestration of the king's money sent for obtaining galleys at Monaco in the district of Genoa, lately made by a person supplying his place, and to give credence to what Nicolinus de Flisco shall say herein on the king's behalf. [Federa.]

Dec. 19. Request to H. bishop of Lincoln, the sub-dean and chapter of the church of Lincoln, and others interested to do quickly what is requisite for the appropriation of the church of Thingden, in that diocese by the abbot and convent of the monastery of St. Michael, Antwerp, to whom the king has granted the advowson in return for their hospitality to the queen. [Federa.]

Dec. 12. Grant in tail male, for long service by the king's side, to John de Ravenshloime, king's yeoman, of 50 marks yearly, to be received at the Exchequer until an equivalent of land or rent be found. By K.

Dec. 2. Pardon, for services to Edward I. Edward II. and the present king in the office of admiral and other offices, to John Lesturmy of all that he owes at the Exchequer or elsewhere, or that can be required of him of green wax and otherwise, and of all accounts which he should render of the time in which he was admiral. By K.

Dec. 26. Acknowledgement of the receipt in the wardrobe from John de Chylton, burgess of Berwick-on-Tweed, by the hands of Robert Galoun, his serjeant, of a loan of 20l. for the king's service on this side the seas; with promise to repay the same at Easter. By K.

Dec. 20. Grant for life, for his good service in Scotland as well as on this side the seas, to William Barber, king's yeoman, of the custody of the gate of the castle of Carlisle, with the usual wages and fees. By K.

Dec. 24. Grant, in consideration of his anxious care for the king when the latter was grievously sick in Scotland, to Coursus de Gangeland, apothecary of
