12-14 EDWARD III.

Membrane 1—cont.

1340.
Jan. 27.
Antwerp.

Grant to the merchants of the realm who lately entrusted their wool to the king at Durdraght for certain sums of money, that notwithstanding the grant to the king's merchant, William de la Pole of the customs and subsidies in the aforesaid ports, and any previous assignments on the customs and subsidies they shall be allowed until Michaelmas 20s. on every sack of their own wool exported and after that date 40s. in custom and subsidy due to the king, until they are fully paid.

Feb. 1.
Antwerp.

Writ of aid for William de Walyngford, king's clerk, appointed to purvey victuals for the household and bring them to ports most convenient for export on this side the seas, and for his deputies. By K. [Part of this membrane is destroyed.]

Membrane 14d.

Grant by Walter de Mauny, knight, to John de [Molyns] of (1) the manor of Bychyndon, co. Buckingham, with the knight's fees, liberties, warrens and other appurtenances, and the reversion of the manor of Chardesle in the same county held for life by John Charbonel and Margery his mother, to hold for life, with successive remainders to William and John his sons, in tail male, and reversion to his right heirs. Witnesses, William de Boun, earl of Northampton, William de Monte Acuto, earl of Salisbury, Geoffrey Scrope, Andrew de Sakevill, Roger de Norwico, Richard de Ekeneye, Richard de la Vache, knights, Roger de Tottenham, Thomas Lovet, Simon de Norton, John Fitz-Bernard; dated at Valenciennes, 19 September 1339.

Quit-claim by the said Walter to the said John, William and John as above of the manors of Bychyndon and Chardesle Valence, co. Buckingham. Witnesses, the said earls, Thomas de Holand, Thomas Wake of Blyseworth, Richard de la Vache, Richard de Ekeneye, knights, Hugh Tyrel, Roger de Pottenham, William de Turvill and others; dated at Valenciennes, 14 September, 13 Edward III. French.

Membrane 13d.

Be it remembered that the following deeds touching Sir Walter de Mauny and Sir John de Molyns are enrolled at their prayer. Done at Aspre in the county of Cumbresive, on 23 September. French.

Indenture witnessing that Sir Walter de Mauny, knight, has granted to John de Molyns, knight, and William and John his sons as above the manor of Bychyndon and the reversion of the manor of Chardesle, co. Buckingham, that the said Sir John has released the said Sir Walter and his heirs from warranty of the manors against John Charbonel and his heirs and has promised to procure for him and his heirs from John Charbonel a release of the manors, saving to the latter a life estate in the manor of Chardesle, that Sir Walter and Sir John will obtain a release of Sir John de Pulteneye in duplicate whereof one shall be delivered to Sir Walter, and that Sir John will procure the king's confirmation and have the charter of the king of the manors in duplicate within a month of Midsummer and then the charter of the king, and a charter of the earl of Atholl made to the said Sir John de Pulteneye of the manor of Bychyndon, shall be delivered to Sir Walter. Dated 19 September, 13 Edward III. French.

Indenture of Walter de Mauny, knight, witnessing that John de Molyns, knight, is bound by recognisance made before Sir Geoffrey Lescrope in 100L. to be paid at Easter if he do not suffer him to have his goods in the manor of Bychyndon which he has sold to the said John within a fortnight after