exchange Thingwell to a poor captive. (5) The brushwood of Derby by these bounds, to wit Brodapeltre in Harumcar, and so by the middle [of] Car to Haselenhirist, and where the path comes out of the wood (nemore) as far as upon Lungele which stretches from Derby to Kirkeby, and so beyond Lungele in Mukebrok, and ascending by Muelebrok to Thrunchorn Dalebrok, and so up to the plain of Thingwalacres; the neighbouring towns have common of herbage and of other things in the said brushwood, and the men of Derby have all necessaries there; and (6) Burtoneswode by these bounds, to wit from Hardesty to Sanky, and from Ravenslake to Bradeleghbrok, provided that William le Botiller (Pincerna) and his heirs shall have there common of pasture, and mast for their swine and timber for their castle of Werinerton, their buildings and to burn. This exemplification is made at the request of Katharine de Lathum.

By letter of the Keeper.

Licence for the alienation in mortmain by Eichard de Forthyngton to the abbot and convent of Kirkestede, in full satisfaction of the 10l. yearly of land and rent which they have the king's licence to acquire, of the advowson of the church of Wodehall, which is held of them and is of the yearly value of 14 marks, as appears by the inquisition. The abbot and convent had already acquired 10 marks yearly of land and rent by pretext of the said licence, but in consideration of this, that by delay in paying for wool taken from them for the king's use and other misfortunes they are now in a very depressed estate, they have obtained from the king licence to receive this as of the value of 5 marks. Lincoln. By letter of the Keeper and fine of 6 marks.

Signification to R. bishop of Salisbury that the king has revoked his presentation by letters patent of 18 February of Eobert de Chisenhale, parson of the church of Chydyngfold in the diocese of Winchester, to the church of Magna Sherston, on an exchange of benefices with John de Courteneye, as he had previously by other letters patent presented Thomas de Baddeby, king's clerk, to the said church, void and in his gift.

By letter of the Keeper.

John, prior of Lanthony Prima in Wales, staying in England has letters nominating Philip de Mawardyn and John Doget as his attorneys in Ireland for two years. Thomas de Cotyngham received the attorneys.

Pardon to William son of Ralph de Stnpelhulle of the king's suit against him for homicides, felonies, robberies, larcenies and trespasses against the peace of Edward II. or of the present king and of any consequent outlawries.
