1340.

The like to the following:—

Thomas Grei the elder, with respect to his tenements in Midelton and Rodon.

William de Felton, with respect to his tenements in Eislelyngam, Lemothton and Neuton.

Robert de Fenewyk, with respect to tenements which he and Isabella his wife hold in Wotton.

John Heyron, with respect to his tenements in Higgeleye.

Whereas the king by letters patent lately appointed Maurice de Berkele to hold the castle and manor of Brymmesfeld, co. Gloucester, which came to him by the forfeiture of John Mautravers, at the rent of 28l. 10s. and whereas on 15 November last Maurice surrendered these; the king, in regard to the great place held by the said Maurice as well in his wars as in his other business, has granted in fee to him the castle and manor to hold with the knight's fees, advowsons, parks, woods, warrens, fisheries and other appurtenances by the services due, quit of the said rent. He has also given to him the issues of the castle and manor from 15 November.
