and Buckingham what are the fees of Chokes, and the names of those who held them at the time they came to the crown and who now hold them.

By p.s.

May 2. Appointment of Richard de Wylughby, Roger de Baukwell and Richard de la Pole to make a visitation of the hospital of St. Leonard, Derby, which is reported to be greatly decayed by misrule; directed to the master, brethren and sisters and ministers of the hospital.

The like, directed to the commissioners themselves.

May 3. Commission to John de Molyns, William de Shareshull, James de Wodestok and Adam atte Glorie, to make an inquisition in the county of Buckingham touching the alleged carrying away of goods late of Hugh le Despenser, earl of Winchester, and Hugh le Despenser, his son, which should have escheated to the king by reason of their forfeiture; and to certify the king of what they do herein.

March 8. Commission to William de Shareshull and others to make inquisitions touching the fees of Pynkeneye and Chokes (already entered on Membrane 12d.).

March 10. Commission to William de Cossale and Roger de Baukwell to make a visitation of the hospital of St. Leonard, Derby, which is reported to be greatly decayed by misrule, to take measures to reform the estate thereof and to inflict due punishment on all persons responsible for the present decay.

March 10. Commission of oyer and terminer to Thomas, earl of Warwick, Hugh le Despenser, Thomas de Berkeley, William de Shareshull, Roger Hillary and John de Sepy, touching contempt and excesses by the bailiffs and men of the town of Worcester in resisting the persons appointed by the king to keep the peace in the county of Worcester by means of a confederacy made between Roger Gawebo, late bailiff, and William Roculf and Henry de Malverne, now bailiffs, of the said town, Nicholas de la Coutreye, John de la Coutreye, Thomas son of Richard Braaz of Goseford, Nicholas Balle, Thomas de Deue the elder, John de Dene, Thomas de Dene the younger, William George, John de Braunsford, William Lewelyn, Henry de Teynton, William le Blak, Alexander le Blak, John le Whelare, Roger Cradau, Henry de Hatfeld, William de Ippele, John atte Holte, Thomas le Chapeleyne of Sainte Elyene, Richard de la Fryth, Thomas le Tyncare, John Payn 'mason,' John Wastel, Robert de Somery, 'sadelere,' Walter de Yerk, 'sadelere,' and others.

By K. & C.

Commencement of a commission to William de Shareshull, William de Cheltenham and Thomas de Langeleye, on complaint by the abbot of Evesham that William de Stivecle, vicar of the church of Tettebury, Miles de Cirencestre, chaplain, Roger Kenewrek, chaplain, Richard de Bersfode, chaplain, John de Wygornia, John de Styvecle, William de Kyngescote, William de Cirencestre, William Cheese of Tettebury and others broke his close at Tettebury, carried away his goods, charters, writings and other muniments, and imprisoned William de Lughteburgh, William de Aledebury,