1340.

Membrane 47—cont.

And afterwards, on 24 January following, John de Boys, John de la Grove and John de Neuton are associated with the said prior, Richard, Robert and William in the county of Essex.

Membrane 46.

Norfolk:
The prior of Wymundham
William de Cusaunce (A. bishop of Norwich)
John de Cailly (The abbot of St. Edmund’s)
Robert de Clare (Supervisors)

And afterwards, on 8 January following, because Robert de Clare was attendant upon the king’s business elsewhere, Thomas de Weston is appointed in his place.

Suffolk:
The prior of St. Peter’s, Ipswich
Ralph de Bockyng (A. bishop of Norwich)
William Giflard (The abbot of St. Edmund’s)
John de Hemenhale
Ralph de Wylyngham

Cambridge and Huntingdon:
Robert de Insula
The prior of Bernewell
John de Engaigne (S. bishop of Ely)
William Moigne (The abbot of Ramsey)
Hugh de Croft (Supervisors)

And afterwards, on 16 January following, Geoffrey Seman and John de Pappeworth are associated with these.

Bedford:
The prior of Dunstaple
John de Chetewode (Roger de Grey)
William de Herlaston (John de Molyns)

Oxford:
The abbot of Eynsham
John Giffard of Twyford (John de Stonore)
Richard de Williamsconte (Nicholas de la Beche)
Thomas de Langeleye (James de Wodestok)

Berks:
The prior of Walyngford
Philip de Englefeld
Thomas Huscarll
Thomas de Hunstane
Richard Paynel
Robert Marie

The same supervisors.

Salop:
The abbot of Shrewsbury
The abbot of Hagghmon
Roger Corbet of Caus
Robert de Harleye (R. bishop of Coventry and Lichfield)

Stafford:
The abbot of Burton-on-Trent
Ralph de Stafford (R. bishop of Coventry and Lichfield)
Thomas de Halghton
Robert Manvesyn
Master Robert de Walkeleyngton

By testimony of the earl of Suffolk.