Somerset:
The abbots of Michelneye
Simon Fourneux
Thomas de Marlebergh
Henry Power
John de Durburgh

Buckingham:
The abbots of Noteleye
Philip de Aylesbury
Richard le Ward
Adam atte Glore

Devon:
The abbots of Torre
John de Ralegh of Beaudeport
John de Chaddelegh
John de Sobbury
Ambrose de Neuburgh

Cornwall:
The prior of Bodemyn
Reginald de Botreux
John de Arundell
Henry de Tretewy

And afterwards, on 20 May, John Hamely and Vivian Tyrel were associated in this commission.

And afterwards, because the king learned for certain that the prior of Bodmin had taken part in the commission prior to a subsequent commission substituting the prior of St. German’s in his place, in the enjoyment of bodily health, and that his removal might easily retard the execution of the premises; by writ close, dated 13 July, on the Close Roll of the present year, he was commanded to disregard the subsequent appointment of the prior of St. German’s; and the latter by another writ was commanded to take no further part in the commission.

Hereford:
The abbot of Wygemore
Roger Chaundos
Richard de Pembrugge
Philip de Clannou
Stephen Deveryes

Middlesex:
The prior of the hospital of St. Mary without Bishopsgate, London
John de Cherleton
John de Enefeld

Dorset:
The abbots of Shirbourn
John Wake
John de Brideport
Roger de Gilden

And afterwards, on 20 May, in place of the said Richard le Warde, John de Neynute is appointed in the commission in the county of Buckingham.

And on 8 June, the king being at Ipswich, on testimony by some magnates that John de Covert was too infirm to work, William de Sessingham is appointed in his place in the county of Sussex.