North Riding of the county of York. All moneys received by them are to be accounted for at York. By K. & C.

The like of the following in the same county and the following counties:

West Riding:
The prior of St. Oswald’s
William de Skargill
John de Malghum
Franco de Barneby

The abbot of Selby
William Basset

Supervisors.

East Riding:
The prior of Wartre
William de Seint Quyntyn
Gerard Salveyn
Robert de Scardeburgh

Michael de Wath, Supervisor.

Northumberland:
John de Fenwyk.
Gilbert de Boroughdon.
Thomas de Heppescotes.
John de Burton, parson of the church of Routhebury.

Cumberland:
The abbot of Holme.
The abbot of Caldre.
John de Orreten.
Clement de Skelton.
Thomas de Skelton.

Westmoreland:
The abbot of Shappe.
William de Thrilkild.
Master William de Brampton.
Richard de Preston.

Lancaster:
The abbot of Fourneys.
Edmund de Nevill.
Richard de Hoghton.
John de Radeclyve.

Nottingham:
The prior of Shelford.
Thomas de Longevillers.
John de Bolyngbrok.
John de Mounteny.
William de Gotham.

Derby:
Roger Deyncourt.
Edward Chaundos.
Roger de Bankwell.
Godfrey Foljambe.

And afterwards, on 25 May, Henry Vavasour, knight, is associated in the commission in the West Riding.

And afterwards, on 30 April, because John de Fenwyk is appointed as arrayer and leader of men-at-arms, hobelers and archers, in the county of Northumberland, against the Scots now in rebellion, Nicholas de Punchardon is appointed in his place in the commission in that county.

And afterwards, on 8 August, William Trussebut, knight, and Richard de Teuerey, parson of the church of Knesale, are associated in the commission in the county of Nottingham.