Whereas the king, having regard to a certificate of the treasurer and barons of the Exchequer shewing that there was answered to his progenitors out of the issues of the temporalities of the abbey of Wilton when in their hands for five weeks 53l. 5s. 10½d. lately granted that the prioress and nunns should have the custody of the abbey whenever void, rendering 40l. a month during such voidance; and whereas the abbess has made petition that whenever a voidance occur the prioress and nunns may have such custody for a certain sum payable to the king in advance; the king, because the abbess has paid in advance 60l. for his next passage at Orwell to parts beyond the seas, and has surrendered the letters patent of the aforesaid grant, has granted to the prioress and nunns the custody of their house in the next voidance without further payment beyond the said 60l. By p.s.
