June 21.

Grant, for long service in the household, to William de Culpho, king's yeoman, of 3d. a day at the Exchequer, until the return of the king to England.

By p.s.

The like to the following:

Thomas le Treour.
Richard Pate.

Protection and safe conduct for the king's merchants, Philip de Bardes, Dinus Forsetti, Peter Byne, John Franceys, Nicholas Maryn, Chonettus de Joky, Bankynus Belcar and their fellows, merchants of the society of the Bardi conversant in England, to whom the king has made various assignments on the subsidy granted to him in the last Parliament at Westminster and the tenth for two years granted by the clergy in satisfaction of large sums lent and promised in aid of his war, and their servants and members of their households travelling to divers parts of England for the execution of the premises and to trade.

By K.

And be it remembered that they had six other like patents of the same date.

Appointment of William de Northwell, king's clerk, as a baron of the Exchequer, during pleasure, in the place of William de la Pole, lately appointed, who is at present engaged in the array of the account which he is bound to render at the Exchequer for the time when he was receiver of certain wool, money, goods and things for the king as well in parts beyond the seas as within, whereby he cannot find time for the said office for this turn.

By p.s.

Mandate in pursuance to the treasurer and barons of the Exchequer.

Appointment, pursuant to 14 Edward III. statute 1, cap. 20, of the prior of St. Oswald's, William de Skargill, John de Ellirker the younger, John de Malghum, Franco de Barneby and Robert Spyneye to assess and levy the ninth and fifteenth in the West Riding of Yorkshire, so that the king may receive one moiety thereof by the hands of the said John de Ellirkir, and the other moiety by the hands of the said Robert, with all speed. The abbot of Seleby, William Basset and Henry Vasavour have been appointed to supervise them in the execution of the premises and the said prior, John, John and Robert have full power to arrest and commit to prison, to be delivered only on the king's order, all persons resisting them in the execution of their commission. The sheriff of the county has been commanded to have before them jurors when they require them and to be attendant upon them herein.

By K.

The like of the prior of Neuburgh, Thomas de Shefieud, John de Ellirkir the younger, William de Popelton and William de Scurreton, in the North Riding; the said John to be receiver of the money.

By K.

The like of the prior of Wartre, William de Seint Quyntyn, Gerard Salveyn, Robert de Scardeburgh and Robert Spyneye, in the East Riding; Robert Spyneye to answer to the king for the money and Michael de Wath, king's clerk, to supervise them.

By K.

The like of the priors of Thurgarton and Shelford, Thomas de Longevillers, Edmund de Cressy, John de Bolyngbrok, John de Mounteny, John de Annesle, Robert Jorce, John de Vaus and William de Gotham in the county of Nottingham; the king to be answered by the hands of the prior of Thurgarton who is to pay the money arising from the ninth, at York, to John de Ellerker the younger, who has been appointed receiver of the subsidy in the counties beyond the Trent.

By K.