

1340.

Membrane 33—cont.

London the said Hermann as a person notoriously suspected of felonies, and they finding him armed at Acton, co. Middlesex, would have executed their commission, but he refused to surrender or to obey the king's mandate and offered a violent resistance, defending himself against them with all his might, whereby he was killed. By the Keeper & C.

Sept. 29. Licence for Richard de Merton to crenellate the dwelling-place of his Andover. manor of Torryton, co. Devon. By p.s.

Oct. 3. Grant, for good service in Scotland and beyond the seas, to Andrew
Andover. de Wauburgh of the office of porter of the castle of Oxford and the custody of the gaol there, if such office and custody are the king's to grant and no other has estate for life or term therein, to hold during good behaviour; on condition that he find security for his good behaviour and that he shall be removed only for lawful cause, whereof the king shall be certified before his removal. By p.s.

Oct. 10. Confirmation of a grant for life by Thomas de Furnival, late lord of Andover. Hallomshire, to Nicholas his son of a rent of 40*l.* out of his lands and rents in Hallomshire, to wit in Sheffield, Bradefeld, Ecclesfeld and Hondesworth, payable at Martinmas and Whitsuntide.

By fine of  $\frac{1}{2}$  mark. York.

Confirmation of a grant for life by the said Thomas to Joan his daughter of a like rent, payable at Michaelmas, the Annunciation, Easter and the Assumption. By fine of  $\frac{1}{2}$  mark. York.

Sept. 1. Promise to the king's merchant, Conrad Clyppyng, to repay to him
Andover 187*l.* 10*s.* 9*d.* expended by him in the king's service as follows. Whereas he undertook to pay within five days of his arrival in parts beyond the seas a debt of the king to certain men of Brusselles, for which the dukes of Brabant and Gueldres, the lord of Cuyk and Simon de Hale, remained as hostages in that town, on his arrival there, to save the king's honour he paid the whole debt fifteen days before the appointed day of payment, and expended 200 marks for his charges over the payment, 17*l.* 13*s.* 7*d.* by which the said debt exceeded the sum he had undertaken to pay, 14*l.* 2*s.* 6*d.* for the passage beyond the seas of himself and Peter de Gildesburgh, and the passage of himself thence to bring the king news of the enemy's fleet then assembled against him in the port of the Swyne, and 22*l.* for the expenses of himself and the said Peter while engaged on the aforesaid business. By p.s.

Oct. 10. Exemplification, for the security of William de Clynton, earl of Hunting-
Andover. don, and Juliana his wife, now tenants of the manor of Templegutyngg, of a charter sent to the king in chancery by the treasurer and chamberlains, witnessing that Thomas Larcher, prior of the Hospital of St. John of Jerusalem in England; and the brethren of the Hospital granted to Hugh le Despenser, son of Hugh le Despenser, earl of Winchester, the manors of Penkern in Wenthelok, in Wales, Bustlesham, Templegutyngg, Boulstrode and Carleton by Basingham, sometime of the Knights Templars, which came to the grantors by virtue of a provision of Pope John XXII, to hold to him, his heirs and assigns, with knights' fees, advowsons of church, hundreds, views of frank-pledge, markets, fairs, chaces, warrens, parks, woods, alder-groves, meadows, plains, feedings, pastures, stanks, stews, dykes, waters, ways, paths, marl-pits, fisheries, houses, buildings, gardens, mills, lands, rents, homages and services as well of the free tenants as of bondmen, with their chattels and issues, royalties, liberties and free customs pertaining to the manors; saving