Yonge of Craule that he render an account for the time in which he was his receiver, on certificat by John de Stonore, now chief justice, that he has now surrendered to the Flete prison.

In the time of Richard I, Margery, late countess of Richmond, granted in feo to Elias de Biker half an acre of land in Swynesheved at the rent of 4s. 4d., which land has now come to the hands of Robert Bumbel, Osbert Bumbel, Walter Bumbel, John Fleil of Swynesheved, Thomas le Smyth, Thomas son of William de Wyndesey, John Barker, John Palmer, William son of Richard Mareschal, Alan Mareschal, John Mareschal and Richard le Taillour, and the same Robert, Osbert and Walter, having built thereon a messuage, John Fleil, Thomas le Smyth, Thomas son of William, John Barker and John Palmer, having each done the same, William son of Richard, Alan and John, having also built a messuage thereon, and Richard le Taillour having done the same, have made supplication to the king that, whereas their title is now impeached by the escheator in the county of Lincoln, on account of the acquisition of the said land because the same is parcel of the earldom of Richmond, which is held in chief, he would find them a remedy herein. The king, in consideration of the fact that the alienation was made in the time of his said progenitor, as appears by inquisition taken by the said escheator at his command, and for a fine made by the suppliants, has pardoned the trespasses herein.

By fine of 20s. Lincoln.

Grant to John Darcy 'le cosyn' of what pertains to the king of the marriage of Isabella late the wife of Norman Darcy, tenant in chief, to wit any fine she may make for her marriage or the forfeiture due if she marry without licence.

Whereas Thomas Perle, Walter de Chiriton, Richard Polkyn, John Polkyn and Thomas Colle, who are to take to Flanders one thousand sacks of wool according to an indenture made between them and the king, and with their men and servants have been taken into his protection and safe conduct while collecting the same in the counties of Gloucester and Worcester, and taking them to Flanders, as are it appears hindered herein by the king's ministers and others, he has appointed Richard de Cortenale, king's serjeant-at-arms, to supervise the speedy collection and export of the wool, with full power to arrest and imprison until further order all persons resisting him in the premises.

The like with respect to six hundred sacks of wool to be taken by John de Wesenham and Walter de Chiriton from the county of Warwick.

By the Keeper & C.

Memorandum of an agreement between the council and Matthew Canasson and Tysard Garet, merchants of Diest, that the latter will pay for the king to James Scuteller of Bruges and Clara late the wife of Michael Joce of Parys a hundred and one sacks of Lincoln wool, to be taken from the ports of Hull or Boston and delivered to them or their attorney at Bruges, by the weight of Bruges, by Martinmas. French.