Feb. 4. Pardon to John atte Wode, 'bocher,' for the death of John Fountayne of Blengate, killed at Stuery, co. Kent, on a like record of William Scot and John Braye, justices appointed to deliver the gaol of Canterbury Castle.

Feb. 1. Grant to Henry de Ingelby, king's clerk, of the custody of the smaller piece of the seal for the recognisances of debts in the city of Norwich, during good behaviour. By p.s.

Feb. 1. Grant to Master John de Thoresby, king's clerk, of the prebend which Master John de Sutton, deceased, held in the church of St. Mary, Lincoln, in the king's gift by reason of the voidance of the see of Lincoln. By p.s. Mandate in pursuance to the dean and chapter of the said church.

Feb. 1. Grant to Henry de Ingelby, king's clerk, that, whereas the king lately appointed him to the custody of the smaller piece of the seal for the recognisances of debts at Norwich, and afterwards, not remembering this, by other letters patent appointed John de Bumpstede to the same, in consideration that he was appointed to the custody for good service done long before John was appointed thereto, and that he has always hitherto made continual stay with the king as well beyond the seas as within in his service, and is still with him not without labours and charges, he shall retain the custody, and the later appointment is annulled by these presents. By K.

Feb. 1. Pardon to Robert son of Alan de Quyxelay of York, now imprisoned in the Marshalsea, for the death of John de Sancto Oswaldo, as it appears by the record of William Scot and his fellows, justices of the King's Bench, that he killed him in self defence.

Feb. 3. Presentation of Walter Horry, parson of the church of Rollesby in the diocese of Norwich, to the church of Wythihamme in the diocese of Chichester, in the king's gift by reason of the temporalities of the priory of Morteyn being in his hands on account of the war with France; on an exchange of benefices with Laurence de Wyndesore. By p.s.

Feb. 3. Presentation of Richard de Eccleshale to the church of Potton in the diocese of Lincoln, in the king's gift by reason of the temporalities of the priory of St. Andrew, Northampton, being in his hands as above. By p.s.

Jan. 26. Exemplification of the record and process before John, bishop of Carlisle, the prior of the church of St. Mary, Carlisle, Robert Parryng and Robert de Eglesefeld, parson of the church of Burgh under Staynemore, lately appointed to make a visitation of the king's hospital of St. Nicholas, Carlisle, as follows. Pursuant to the king's letters patent, dated 25 July, 14 Edward III, appointing them to make such visitation, the commissioners commanded the sheriff of Cumberland to summon a jury of twenty-four knights and others at the hospital on Tuesday before the Nativity of St. Mary, and to warn the master, brethren and sisters to be there then to inform them touching some matters affecting the hospital.
