1341.

May 1. Mandate to the dean of the church of St. Mary, Lincoln, to admit Humphrey de Hastang, king's clerk, to the prebend of Nassington in the said church, in the king's gift by reason of the voidance of the see, which the king by letters patent has granted to the said Humphrey.

May 28. Respite from knighthood for one year to Thomas Fabel. By K. and by fine of 40s.

MEMBRANE 1.

May 15. Whereas Geoffrey le Scrope in his lifetime acquired in fee from John, duke of Brittany and earl of Richmond, the manor of Daneby upon Wyke, held in chief, and as well the said Geoffrey as Henry le Scrope his son and heir, after his death, entered upon the same without licence; in consideration of the good service of the former and of a fine made by the latter, the king has pardoned the trespasses herein, and made restitution of the manor, which had been taken into his hands with other lands of the said Geoffrey after his death.

May 10. Licence for the alienation in mortmain by Oliver de B[ohooun], William de Hoyvill, Philip de Hyngeluede, Cristiana Stari and Thomas de Medmenham, to the Austin Friars, intending to dwell at Winchester of three messuages in that city, to build a church and dwelling-houses on.

May 15. Exemplification, under the seal now in use of letters patent, dated 25 January, 14 Edward III, in favour of Thomas de Rokeby.

May 20. Licence for Richard Talbot and Elizabeth his wife to grant, in fee, to Thomas Talbot, clerk, the reversion of the manors of Swyndon, co. Wilts, Donynton with 4l. of rent in Hertwell, co. Buckingham, and Melton, co. Kent, and two parts of the manor of Shryvenham, co. Berks, said to be held in chief, which Mary late the wife of Aymer de Valencia, earl of Pembroke, holds in dower of the inheritance of the said Elizabeth; and for him to re-grant the same to them and the heirs of Richard.

May 20. Whereas John de Thorpe, king's clerk, lately instituted on the king's presentation to the church of Flamsted in the diocese of Lincoln, who not long since while in the custody thereof was removed for a certain time and detained in custody by the king's command, and against whom while in the custody of it injuries and damages as well over the possession of the church as in holding of his goods were done by his enemies in the confidence that they would not be punished for the same, is now delivered from custody by the king and in person and by his servants is suing in divers courts and places for a remedy herein, the king has taken him and his men and servants under his special protection in prosecuting their business, staying there and returning home again.

May 21. Pardon, in consideration of good service done by him, to William Fraunk of the fine which he made with the king for trespasses whereof he is indicted before Nicholas de C[antelu] and his fellows, justices of oyer and terminer in the counties of Lincoln, Nottingham and Derby.
