1341.

Membrane 7—cont.

Oct. 2. Revocation of the late grant to Humphrey de Hastang, king's clerk, of the prebend of Stransele, in the church of St. Peter, York, made by the king without remembering that he had already by letters patent ratified the estate of William son of Nicholinus de Flisco as prebendary thereof by a papal provision.

Oct. 4. Pardon, at the request of Walter de Mauny, to Thomas, abbot of Westminster, and brother Nicholas de Lythyngton, his fellow-monk, for taking in the forest of Wyndesore a stag (unum staggum unius cervi) and a hind and carrying them away.

Oct. 4. Walter de Bermyngham, going to Ireland, has letters nominating Maurice de Bermyngham, parson of the church of Algerkirk, and Robert de Rotynston as his attorneys in England for two years.

Oct. 6. By letters patent, dated 28 April, 12 Edward III, the king granted for life to John de Sapy such fees and robes in the household as other king's knights receive, and he has made petition that in lieu of these he may have 3 tuns yearly of the king's prize of wines in the port of Bristol. In consideration of his service to him and his progenitors and because he has surrendered the said letters patent the king has granted to the said John that for his life he shall have 3 tuns of the said wine yearly.

Oct. 10. Promise to John Darcy le oosyn to pay to him 1,060l. 17s. 4d. to the king at the receipt of the exchequer, on 8 October last, by the surrender of bills of the wardrobe of moneys due to him for wages of him and men-at-arms retained by him in the king's service and for horses lost in the said service.

Oct. 1. Revocation of the grant for life by letters patent to John de Shordich of the office of the chirography in the Common Bench, in lieu of a yearly sum lately granted to him, as the king has satisfied him of that sum from another part and he has borne himself ill by adhering to some rebels against the king.

Oct. 4. Grant for life to Ralph de Brok, king's clerk, of the said office.

Oct. 10. William Roymound of Benquet (de Banqueto), staying beyond the seas, has letters nominating William de Kynardeby and Doatus Amenu as his attorneys in England for two years.

Sept. 2. By letters patent, the king granted to his yeoman, Richard de Langele, wages, to wit 7½d. a day and robes for life by the hands of the keeper of the wardrobe, and afterwards, on 30 June, 12 Edward III, granted as a further grace that the said 7½d. and 4½d. a day for his life should be allowed out of his yearly farm of 24l. 11s. 8½d. at the exchequer for the manor of Newenton, Isle of Wight; and now on his petition showing that he cannot have his wages by allowance out of the said farm at the exchequer because that farm is all other profits of the Isle of Wight are, reserved to the king's chamber, and because he has surrendered the said letters patent, the king grants that he shall have allowance of the 12d. a day for wages in the farm at the chamber from the time when the reservation of that farm was made and for the rest of his life.

By p.s.