Membrane 36—cont.

Feb. 28. Pardon to John le Noble, chaplain, for the death of Robert son of Westminster. John North of Hampton by Kyngeston, as it appears by the record of John de Oxenford, mayor of London, and his fellows, justices appointed to deliver Neugate gaol, that he killed him in a fit of insanity.

Feb. 25. Grant, for the special affection which the king bears to Matilda de Westminster. Bello Campo, abbess of Godestowe, that for her life she and the convent of that place shall have three cartloads of wood weekly in the king's wood of Shottore, by livery of his foresters there, and free ingress to and egress from the wood for this cause. By p.s.

Feb. 23. Licence for the alienation in mortmain by Thomas de Grey 'le prieur' Westminster and Alice, late the wife of John de Boroughdon of 6 marks of rent out of the manor of Eworth, co. Northumberland, to a chaplain to celebrate divine service in a chapel in Eworth as they shall order. By p.s.

Membrane 35.

Feb. 10. Presentation of Robert Worship to the church of Kynardyngton, in the diocese of Canterbury, in the king's gift by reason of the lands, late of Margaret, late the wife of William de Basynge, tenant in chief, being in his hands.

Feb. 14. Grant to Thomas de Reynham, king's clerk, of the prebend in the chapel of St. Mary and the Holy Angels, York, lately held by Master Alun de Shirburn, in the king's gift by reason of the voidance of the see of York. By p.s. Mandate in pursuance to the guardian of the spirituality of the see.

Feb. 3. Grant to Guy Ferre and Joan his wife, in recompence of her lands in Scotland which they have lost by adherence to the king, of 50 marks yearly at the exchequer, for her life or until they recover such lands. By p.s.

Feb. 20. Grant to John, duke of Brittany, and count of Montfort, of the earldom of Richmond, to hold as John, late duke of Brittany and earl of Richmond held it, until he be provided with an equivalent of land in the realm of France. [Fosdera.] By K.

Feb. 20. Whereas by agreement between the king and Almaric de Clyzon, tutor and guardian of John de Bretayne, son and heir of John, duke of Brittany and count of Montfort, it is agreed inter alia that lady Joan de Flandres, duchess of Bretayne and countess of Montfort, and the said Almaric as such tutor and guardian will lend some of the treasure of the said duke for the king to coin into money in the said land of Brittany, as is more fully contained in an indenture; he, for the indemnity of the duke in this behalf, grants that such agreement and coining of money shall not prejudice the duke or his heirs, the men of the said duchy or the land of Brittany.

Feb. 20. Notification that Master Robert de Adria, who by a suggestion to the Pope that he was a clerk, or in the service, of the king long ago procured a provision of a canony and prebend in the church of Salisbury, never was nor is his clerk or in his service, for which reason as a lying petitioner he ought not to have what he obtained by asking, and that if, as the king does not believe, he has his letters patent pretending that he was his clerk, they were obtained surreptitiously and without his