June 1. Westminster.

Assignment to queen Isabella of 500l. to be received from Robert le Baker of Lughtburgh, from moneys arising from the king's wool in the counties of Roteland and Warwick sold to him, in part payment of what the king owes to her, to wit one moiety on 24 June and the other moiety on 1 August.

Mandate in pursuance to the said Robert.

July 1. Tower of London.

Whereas the king has charged his butler, Reymund Seguyyn, to make with all speed divers purveyances of wines for his passage beyond the seas, by advice of the council he has assigned to the said Reymund 130 sacks of his wool in the county of Kent of the present year beyond the 167 sacks of the said wool previously assigned for the expenses of his office, to be received by the hands of the collectors and receivers at the price of 6l. the sack beyond the ancient custom of £ mark due to the king.

Mandate in pursuance to the collectors and receivers.

July 3. Tower of London.

Assignment to William de Kildesby, king's clerk, who is going to Brittany on the king's service with 50 men at arms, whereof he is a banneret, 10 are knights, and 39 squires, and 100 archers, of 85 sacks, 3 quarterons of wool, of the king's wool in the county of Suffolk, for the wages of him and his men.

Mandate in pursuance to the collectors and receivers of the wool.

July 20. Tower of London.

By letters patent the king assigned to his merchants, Henry Mudderpenyng and his fellows, merchants of Almain, the contingent of the 30,000 sacks of wool granted to him by the commonalty of the realm from the counties of Norfolk, Suffolk, Southampton and Wilts of the present year, in part payment of sums due to them, and now for urgent causes connected with his passage beyond the seas he has with their assent caused such assignment to be revoked. In order that they may be satisfied of their debt, he has, with the assent of the council, assigned to them 12s. 4d. from each sack of wool, 2 marks from each last of hides, and 13s. 4d. from each 300 wool-fells out of the subsidy of 40s. from each sack of wool, 6 marks from each last of hides and 40s. from each 300 wool-fells exported until 24 June next, granted by the merchants of the realm in the king's last treaty with them at Westminster, to be received from all wool exported except the king's wool of the 30,000 sacks granted to him in the last Parliament.
