1342.

Membrane 3—cont.

a tenement with two shops and other appurtenances to which he succeeded on the death of Richard Godsalvi, knight, his father, in the parish of St. Benedict atte Wode Wharf, London, at the rent of a red rose at Midsummer for the first six years, and then of 60s. sterling at the same term, and afterwards granted that they should hold the premises for one whole year after the said six years discharged of the rent of 60s., he, for a sum of money by the said John de Marton in hand paid, has granted that they shall hold the tenement and shops for six years beyond the said seven years discharged of the said 60s. of rent; in witness whereof his seal is appended to the present writing, Andrew Aubrey being mayor of the city and Adam Lucas and Bartholomew Dieumars sheriffs of the same city; witnesses, Walter Nel, alderman of the ward of Baynard Castel, William de Carleton, Richard de Pynnore, William atte Well, chandler, Thomas de Maryns, Roger de Frowyk, John de Priterwell, Jurdan le Sherman, bedel of the said ward, and many others, dated at London on Tuesday after St. Bartholomew the Apostle, 15 Edward III.

Membrane 2.

May 15. Inspeximus and confirmation of letters patent, dated 18 November. Westminster. Edward II, granting in fee to Nicholas de Verduno the manor of Mauddevileston, co. Loueth, Ireland, which came to the hands of Edward I, of the gift of Ralph Pipard; and whereas the said Nicholas has made petition to the king setting forth that John de Maundevyil, who is now tenant of the manor, has never yet attorned to him for the services due from the manor, because he was a ward of the late king at the time of the grant aforesaid, and praying that he may have the services of the said John, which should pertain to him as lord of the manor, the king in consideration of his long service to his father and himself has granted to the said Nicholas and his heirs, the services of the said John, although the latter holds of the manor by knight service.

May 18. Confirmation of a demise by brother Astorgius, prior of Lenton, and the convent of that place, to Edmund de Dymeton, parson of the church of Cathorp, of the manor of Curtenhale, co. Norhampton, to hold to him and his assigns for thirteen years from Easter Monday, rendering yearly 40l. at Michaelmas and Easter, doing the due and accustomed services to the chief lords of that fee and bearing other charges incumbent on the manor.

April 27. Licence for the alienation in frank almoin by the king's kinswoman Mary de Sancto Paulo, countess of Pembroke, to the abbess and Sisters Minoresses of Deneye, co. Cambridge, the advowson of the church of Godereston, co. Norfolk, said to be held in chief, and for the appropriation of the church by the abbess and sisters. Westminster. By p.s.

May 18. Presentation of Thomas Fox, parson of the church of Gillyng, in the diocese of York, to the church of Kypax, in the same diocese, in the king's gift by reason of the temporalities of the priory of Pontefract being in his hands on account of the war with France; on an exchange of benefices with William de Wakefield. Westminster. By p.s.