against the bishop for the non-admission of the said William de Myrfeld.

July 14. Pardon to Nicholas de Staunford, clerk, for all manner of trespasses against the king and people from the time when the king assumed the governance of the realm, and of any consequent outlawries.

By K. and by fine of 5 marks. Lincoln.

July 14. Presentation of John le Botiler, chaplain, to the church of Weston unde Egge in the diocese of Worcester, in the king's gift by reason of his custody of the land and heir of John Guffard of Weston, tenant in chief.

By letter of secret seal.

July 14. By letters patent the king lately assigned to Robert Dartoy 1,000 marks out of the farm paid by the prior of Okeburn for his priory lately taken into the king's hands and committed to him under a certain form, and he has made petition that, whereas Andrew Aubrey, citizen of London, has lent him 500 marks for purveyances and outfit for his passage beyond the seas on the king's service, the said Andrew may have the moiety of such 1,000 marks due by the prior at Michaelmas. The king, in consideration of the kindly loan made for the furtherance of his war, grants that Andrew or his attorney shall receive the said 500 marks, which should be paid to Robert at Michaelmas, even if Robert should die in the interval or for any cause payment of the sum ought not then to be paid to him. If payment be not made it shall be lawful for Andrew to enter the priory and its lands and take distrains to the value of 500 marks.

By K.
