Sept. 3. Pardon to the king's clerk, Thomas de Goldyngton, leech (medicus) for his late adherence to the Scots, the king's enemies and rebels, in the land of Scotland and for applying his care and diligence to the healing of William de Makeswell, one of such enemies, of an infirmity, and of any consequent outlawry. By K.

Sept. 3. Grant for life to Simon de Scaupwyk, hermit, of the king's hermitage of St. Andrew by the priory of nuns of St. Leonard, Grymesby.

Sept. 5. Promise to Dinus Forcetti, Peter Bini and their fellows, merchants of the society of the Bardi, who have undertaken to make a loan for the king of 12,000 florins with the shield, in value 2,000l. sterling, and deliver these to Master Paul de Monte Florum beyond the seas, to pay to them on 1 December the said 2,000l. and beyond this 1,000l. sterling in part payment of sums previously due to them. By bill of the treasurer.

Mandate in pursuance to the treasurer and chamberlains.

Membrane 17.

Aug. 20. Whereas the king lately assigned to his merchants of the societies of the Bardi and the Peruzzi, in satisfaction of large sums to be lent for his present passage, 2,500 marks out of the fine which his ministers of the county of Northampton have made with him before Robert Paryng, John Dengayne and their fellows, justices appointed to hear and determine oppressions in that county, to be received by them as soon as the money arising therefrom should be levied, and ordered the sheriff to levy the same with all speed according to the estreats of the justices; and whereas the merchants of the Peruzzi will not be able to satisfy him of the money promised for that passage unless such assignment be paid to them; he has appointed William de Lodelowe and John de Northburgh to supervise and accelerate the collection and to levy the same with the sheriff if need be, compelling payment from all persons resisting them by distraint of their lands and goods, so that the said merchants may receive their contingent of 1,000 marks of the said assignment without delay.
