March 6. Lambeth. Pardon to Robert de Maule, king's yeoman, for all trespasses as well of vert as of venison in the forest of Shirewode for all the time wherein he had the custody thereof of the king's grant and of any consequent outlawries.
By p.s.

March 8. Tower of London. Grant to Robert de Ferariis of what pertains to the king of the marriage of Margery late the wife of William de Roos of Hamelak, tenant in chief, to wit any fine she may make for such marriage, or the forfeiture due if she marry without licence.
By p.s.

March 10. Tower of London. Mandate to all sheriffs, mayors, bailiffs, ministers and others to furnish carriage at the king's charges as required for William Stury, who stood with him in his service in Brittany and has come back to the port of Portsmouth with armour and other things for which he requires carriage thence to London, and for his men deputed to bring the same.
By K.

March 14. Westminster. Presentation of William de Boulton to the church of Wotton, in the diocese of Bath and Wells, in the king's gift by reason of the priory of Stoke Courcy being in his hands on account of the war with France.

March 10. Westminster. Grant for life to William de Clopton, king's yeoman, of the office of crier of the household, to hold in the same manner as Bartholomew de Langele, deceased, held it.
By p.s.

March 14. Westminster. Whereas the king lately collated the prebend of Wetewang in the church of St. Peter, York, to William de Kildesby, king's clerk, who obtained possession of the same canonically and holds it at present and defending the rights of the king and himself therein in the court of Rome against Gailard de Duro Forti who was endeavouring to impugn their right in this behalf, when the king had no knowledge of the plea in that court moved by Gailard against his said clerk; and whereas by the importunity of some, in the absence of the said clerk in his service in Brittany, the king caused letters patent to be made prejudicial to his right and the possession of the prebend by the said William; not willing that he should be prejudiced whilst he was thus beyond the seas on his service, the king grants that he shall hold the prebend as he held it before going to Brittany.
By p.s.

April 3. Tower of London. Acquittance to the same William, late receiver of the king's chamber, pursuant to the tenour of a certificate by the king's clerks Philip de Weston and Nicholas de Bokelond, who were appointed by commission to audit his account for the time in which he was receiver, that he has duly passed such account before them and gone away quit.
By p.s.

April 13. Havering atte Bower. Mandate to bailiffs and others to aid Robert de Gillyng, sent by Robert Parvyng, the chancellor, to make purveyances in divers parts of the realm for the household of the chancery, and to provide such carriage for his purveyances as he requires, until 21 June.
By p.s.

April 18. Northake. Grant for life to Walter Warde of the serjeanty of Meath and Uriel in Ireland, lately held by Nicholas Crus, which for certain causes has been taken into the king's hands by the treasurer and barons of the exchequer of Dublin, to hold in like manner as Nicholas held it.
