1843.

the great and costly labours of the said Walter in his service in Scotland manfully exposing himself with others to repress the malice of the Scots, as well as his laudable bearing in Ireland for the defence of the king's rights and the repulse of the Irish daily invading the lands of the king and his lieges, wherein from the time of the death of his father he has been attendant both with men of those parts and with the king's ministers there, the king has granted to him in fee all the forfeited castles, towns, manors and lands in Ireland of his said father, to hold with the knights' fees, advowsons, fairs, markets, warrens, liberties, free customs and other things pertaining to the same and all reversion, as his father held them, and they would have come to him by inheritance if judgment had not been delivered against the father, by the services due and the rent of a goshawk at Michaelmas for a perpetual remembrance of so great a grace done unto him.

May 3.
Westminster.

Presentation of John Farman, king's clerk, parson of the church of Bekynton in the diocese of Bath and Wells, to the church of Little Lanfare in the diocese of London, on an exchange of benefices with Roger de Skeryngton, king's clerk.

The like of the said Roger to the said church of Bekynton, in the king's gift by reason of his custody of the lands and heir of John de Erlee.

March 31.
Havering atte
Bower.

Thomas Cok going to Spain there to stay in the company of the king's kinsman Henry de Lancaster, earl of Derby, has letters nominating Simon Pakeman of Kersey and William de Merston as his attorneys in England until Michaelmas.

By p.s.

Master John de Offord received the attorneys.

May 5.
Westminster.

Mark Huse and Margery his wife, staying in England, have letters nominating Nicholas son of Henry Fitz Herbert and John de Assheburn as their attorneys in Ireland for two years.

Alan de Boys, clerk, received the attorneys of Mark Husee and the abbot of Crokedten received the attorneys of Margery.

May 8.
Westminster.

John de Lyne, "chivaler," going beyond the seas, has letters nominating Geoffrey Folejumbe and Roger de Padeleye as his attorneys in England for one year.

Th. de Evesh[am] received the attorneys.

May 1.
Westminster.

Pardon to Guy de Brian, king's yeoman, of all trespasses of vert and venison in the forest of Dene and any consequent outlawries. By p.s.

May 7.
Westminster.

Presentation of Thomas de Oterington to the church of St. Nicholas, Notingham, in the diocese of York, in the king's gift by reason of the priory of Lenton being in his hands on account of the war with France.

May 7.
Westminster.

Presentation of William son of Nicholas le Hunt of Fenny Strafford to the church of Newenton Longeville, in the diocese of Lincoln, void by the death of Roger Luce, late rector, and in the king's gift by reason of the temporalities of the priory of Newenton Longeville being in his hands on account of the war with France.

May 8.
Westminster.

Ada late the wife of John de Sancto Philberto, going beyond the seas, has letters nominating John Fener and Richard de Hatecumbre as her attorneys in England until Christmas.

Master John de Thoresby received the attorneys.

She has like letters nominating Richard le Forester and John Oxney as above.

The said Master John received the attorneys.