Presentation of Thomas de Cotynghani to the church of St. Andrew, Holbourn, London, in the diocese of London, in the king's gift by reason of the priory of Bermondeseye being in his hands on account of the war with France.

Exemplification of letters patent, dated 16 November, 16 Edward III, granting that the mayor, bailiffs and citizens of Cork in Ireland shall in future pay the rent due at the exchequer of Dublin for their city and a place by it yearly, instead of half yearly, and make one profer there in each year instead of two as before, and shall do this by attorney.

Mandate in pursuance to the treasurer and barons of the said exchequer.

Grant to Hugh le Joignour, yeoman of the chamber, of the office of the stewardship of the exchequer of Dublin, to hold for his life in the same manner as Thomas de Bentham, deceased, held it, with the accustomed fees and wages.

Exemption for life of Willam de Tendrynge from being put on assizes, juries or recognitions, and from appointment as mayor, sheriff, escheator, coroner or other bailiff or minister of the king, against his will.

Licence for Simon Simeon to enclose his wood of Grafton within the forest of Rokyngham with a little dyke and low hedge according to the assise of the forest. Licence also for him to sell the underwood in that wood as often as he pleases, provided that sufficient covert be left there for the king's deer of the said forest.

Licence for the alienation in mortmain by John son of William Dragoun of Droitwich (Wich) to the prior and Austin Friars of Droitwich of a plot of land in Droitwich 200 feet long and 60 feet broad, for the enlargement of their dwelling place.

Nicholas, abbot of Keynesham, staying in England, has letters nominating brother William de Bromfeld, his fellow-canon, and Thomas Osmound as his attorneys in Ireland for two years.