diocese of York, in the king's gift by reason of the earldom of Richmond being in his hands; on an exchange of benefices with John de Wynferthyn.

May 10. Licence for the prioress and nuns of Staynfeld to appropriate the church of Gisburn, which is of their advowson. By p.s.

May 18. Presentation of Robert de Moreton, chaplain, to the church of Offord Cluny, in the diocese of Lincoln, in the king's gift by reason of the temporalities of the abbot of Lire being in his hands on account of the war with France.

May 16. Pardon, for good service to the king's father and the king, to William de Brendwode, late keeper of the king's horses, for all oppressions by colour of his office whereof he is indicted or impeached and of any consequent outlawries.

May 20. Presentation of Ranulph de Spaldyng to the vicarage of the church of St. Andrew, Tuardrayth, in the diocese of Exeter, in the king's gift by reason of the temporalities of the priory of Tuardrayth being in his hands on account of the war with France.

May 15. Acquittance to John Tempest for 50 marks of the 100 marks required of him and Benedict Gille, late collectors of wool granted to the king by the commonalty of the realm in his twelfth year, to be levied after the rate of a fifteenth, in the West Riding, co. York, of the increment of the said wool, which he has paid at the receipt of the exchequer, as William de Cusancia, king's clerk, the treasurer, has certified before the council. By p.s.

May 19. Pardon to Thomas Broun of his outlawry in the husting of London for non appearance before Robert Parvyng and his fellows, justices appointed to examine, hear and determine all indictments before John de Oxonia, then mayor of London, made by virtue of a mandate to him and others to inquire of wool taken without the realm uncocketed and uncustomed in the city of London; granted at the request of William de Bohun, earl of Northampton, and on testimony by him before the king that the said Thomas lately went to Brittany in his company and stayed there with him until he came to England. By p.s.

May 10. Presentation of Robert de Neuton to the vicarage of the church of Tutbury, in the diocese of Coventry and Lichfield, in the king's gift by reason of the priory of Tutbury being in his hands on account of the war with France.

May 10. Mary de Sancto Paulo, countess of Pembroke, staying in England, has letters nominating John Morice, knight; and Ralph Meiler as her attorneys in Ireland for two years. The chancellor received the attorneys.

April 25. Appointment of Philip de Weston, king's clerk, to the custody of the castle of Caresbrok, Isle of Wight, during pleasure. By K.