Membrane 14—cont.

1343.

Pardon also, at the request of the said Eleanor, to the prior and convent for acquiring to them and their successors from the abbot and convent the pension of 10 marks which the latter before the release aforesaid received from the church, without the licence of Edward II or the present king, and grant that they shall hold the church quit of the said pension according to the form of the above letters, notwithstanding that at the time of their acquisition of the same the abbot and convent of Lundores were adherents of the king's enemies and rebels. Pardon further of any arrears of the said pension or other things which may pertain to the king in this behalf. By K. & C.

July 7. Midhurst.

Grant for life to Richard de Canterbris, the king's larderer, of the custody of the gaol of Newegate in the city of London, with such fees, wages and profits as Richard de Hereford and Edmund le Lorymer and others holding the office by grant of the king's progenitors have had.

By p.s.

Whereas the king's kinsman, William de Bohun, earl of Northampton, is having wheat, oats, hay and other victuals for the sustenance of himself and his men brought by his servants from the counties of Kent, Oxford, Hereford and Essex and other places by land and water to London, the king has taken the said victuals and men and servants into his special protection until Michaelmas.

By testimony of Reymund.

Whereas Matthew de Clyvedon lately acquired in fee from Richard Dammory, 'chivaler,' the manors of Hedyngdon and Godynton, and 50 acres of land in Staunton St. John, with the hundred of Bolyndon and the hundred without the north gate of Oxford, held in chief, and Richard afterwards acquired in fee from Matthew Pecche the said manors, hundreds and lands, with a messuage and a carucate of land in Newenton Plescy and Parkhouse, the bailiwick of the forestership of Selewode, Monedep, Pederton and Netherchiche, co. Somerset, and of Exemor, in the same county and the county of Devon, the advowsons of the church of Hankrigge and the chapel of Newenton, held in chief, and as well the said Matthew as the said Richard entered into the same respectively without licence; the king for a fine made by Richard has pardoned these trespasses and granted licence for him to retain the manors, hundreds, messuage, land and bailiwick, with the advowsons, to him and his heirs. By fine of 20L. Somerset.

Presentation of Thomas Bentele of Wyvelynghani, parson of the church of Chikeneye, in the diocese of London, to the vicarage of the church of Great Berdefeld, in the same diocese, in the king's gift by reason of the temporalities of the priory of Stoke by Clare being in his hands on account of the war with France; on an exchange of benefices with Walter, vicar of the latter church.

June 27. Westminster.

Licence for the alienation in mortmain by Adam de Batelay of a messuage, 7 acres of land and 20s. of rent in Haworth to a chaplain to celebrate divine service daily in the chapel of St. Michael, Haworth, for the souls of the said Adam and his successors.

By fine of 4 marks, and at the request of the prince of Wales. York.
