July 8. Promise to John, vicar of the church of Estbourne, to pay to him 6L. 5s. due for a sack and thirty cloves of his wool taken by John de Radynden and his fellows, lately appointed to take in the county of Sussex a certain number of the 20,000 sacks of wool granted to the king by Parliament in his fourteenth year. In the agreement made in that Parliament touching payment for the said wool it is contained that those from whom it is taken shall be satisfied out of the issues of the subsidy of a ninth of sheaves, fleeces and lambs but because the said subsidy has since been changed into a certain number of sacks of wool the vicar cannot now be paid for his wool in that way.

May 20. Licence for the alienation in mortmain by William son of John Pypard, knight, to the minister and Trinitarian Friars of the house of the Holy Ghost, Werlond, of a messuage and a ferling of land in Northbovy and the advowson of the church of St. John the Baptist, Northbovy, in aid of the sustenance of a friar chaplain of their order to celebrate divine service daily in the church of the said house for the souls of the king's progenitors, and the said William, Margery his wife, Joan late the wife of John la Zouche and their ancestors; and for the appropriation of the church by the minister and Friars.

The like, by Geoffrey Gilberd, of a messuage and 5 acres of land in Tetton in aid of the sustenance of a friar chaplain to be found by the said minister and Friars to celebrate divine service daily in the said church for the souls of the king's progenitors and the said Gilbert, Joan his wife, and Peter Soth.

By the same p.s.

July 1. Whereas, the king, by judgment of the justices of the Bench of Dublin, lately recovered against James le Botiller, late earl of Ormond, and Master Luke de Loundres the presentation to the church of Cnokgrafi'an by reason of the lands of John de Bermyngham, late earl of Loueth, being in his hands, and, by letters patent under the seal of Ireland, presented Master Robert de Atherde to that church; and whereas pending execution of the judgment rendered therein, for the security of the said
