Luke he, by letters patent under the seal of England, ratified his estate as parson of the church revoking his presentation of the said Robert to the same; Luke has now made petition shewing that because in the letters of ratification there is no mention of such recovery he is impeached and can in future be impeached by the king's ministers in Ireland in his possession of the church, and the king for his security grants that he shall hold the church according to such letters of ratification, saving the right of the crown to the presentation to the church when void by reason of the recovery aforesaid.

Membrane 8.

Licence for the alienation in frank almoign by John de Cherleton to the abbot and convent of St. John the Evangelist, Haghmon, of the advowson of the church of Lydum, said to be held in chief, to find three chaplains to celebrate divine service daily in the abbey church for the souls of Edmond, late earl of Arundel, his heirs and ancestors, and the faithful departed; and for the abbot and convent to appropriate the church. By K.

Grant to John de Stryyvelyn, in consideration of the great place which he has held for the king in divers parts and for the maintenance of his estate, of 20l. of rent in the towns of Killum, Poston, Tweng, Fyveleye, Sixendale and other towns, co. York, late of Aymer de Valencia, earl of Pembroke, tenant in chief of Edward II, which are in the king's hands by reason of the death of the said earl and the minority of David de Strabolgi, son and heir of David de Strabolgi, earl of Athol, one of the kinsmen and heirs of Aymer; to hold during minority of such heir. By p.s.

Appointment of William de Emeldon, king's clerk, to take into the king's hands the lands and appurtenances of the principality of Wales which he by charter [Charter Roll, 17 Edward III, No. 24] has now granted to his first-born son Edward, prince of Wales, duke of Cornwall and earl of Chester, and deliver them to the prince; also to survey all defects in the castles and manors of the same and in the armour, victualls and other things belonging to the king therein, which are also to be delivered to the prince, and to make indentures with the prince or his attorneys of such defects and of the price of the victualls, and to deliver the parts of the indentures remaining with him to the treasurer and chamberlains at the exchequer.

Writ of aid for him in the land and principality of Wales.

Licence at the instance of William de Kirkeby, for the alienation in mortmain by William de Clynton, earl of Huntingdon, and Juliana, his wife, of 20s. yearly of land in rent in the manor of Worfeld, held in chief, which they hold in dower of the inheritance of Laurence de Hastynge, earl of Pembroke, to a chaplain to celebrate divine service in the chapel of St. Mary, within the church of Worfeld, for the good estate of the king, queen Philippa, the said earl, Juliana and William, and for their souls after their death; and for the said earl of Pembroke to grant that after the death of Juliana the chaplains shall hold the same in frank almoign: provided that by inquisitions taken by the escheator in the county of Salop it should be found that this would be without prejudice to any one. And because it has been found by an inquisition taken by the escheator that