of the principality, due to the king in North Wales and South Wales, and all accounts due there in the said times. Also of all victuals and stock, live and dead, and other things now being in the castles in those parts which he holds of the king's grant. By p.s.

Sept. 20.
Westminster.

Grant to the same prince of the ward of the manors of Rysbergh, co. Buckingham, and Newport, co. Essex, late of Henry de Feraris, tenant in chief, to hold with the knights' fees, advowsons of churches and other things pertaining to that custody during nonage of the present heir, and so from heir to heir. By p.s.

Sept. 22.
Westminster.

Presentation of Roger de Queryngton to the church of Merston, in the diocese of Lincoln.

MEMBRANE 29.

Westminster.

Whereas John, archbishop of Canterbury, is shortly to go to Canterbury for some business of the king and to his cathedral church there for matters connected with his jurisdiction and spiritual office and divers threats have been uttered by evil disposed persons and plots formed against him when he shall so come there, the king has granted that he may take in his company as many armed men and others as shall be necessary for his protection in going there and has taken him and them with their goods and possessions into his special protection for one year.

Protection in like terms for the prior of Christ Church, Canterbury, while forwarding business wherewith he is charged by the king at the same city.

Aug. 20.
Westminster.

Protection during pleasure, out of consideration for the king's lieges of Flanders, for John de Bruyn, burgess of Ghent, now making stay in Abington, making woollen cloth there and trading in other wares within the realm, and his men and servants. By p.s.

Aug. 28.
Kingscliff.

Appointment of John de Stryvelyn as sheriff of the county of Northumberland, for the maintenance of the king's peace there in view of the frequent breaches thereof now prevalent; and it is the king's will that he shall retain six men at arms and eight archers selected by himself for ten or twelve weeks as may be expedient at the king's wages to bridle the malice of the evildoers. By p.s.

Aug. 28.
Westminster.

Licence for the alienation in mortmain to the prior and Crutched Friars by the Tower of London, in full satisfaction of the 100s. yearly of land and rent which they have the king's licence to acquire, by Simon Potterre, citizen of London, of a messuage in the parish of St. Olave by the said Tower and by Ellen wife of Thomas le Gardener, citizen and fruiterer of London, of a messuage in the parish of St. Bartholomew without Bishopsgate, which messuages are held of the king in free burgage, as the whole city is, and are of the clear yearly value of 60s. as appears by inquisition taken by Simon Franchise, mayor and escheator of London.

Aug. 30.
Kingscliff.

Whereas the king's merchants, Thomas de Melcheburne and his fellows, to whom he has committed the customs in the ports of England for a certain rent, have undertaken to bind themselves to Terrius, lord of