Membrane 24—cont.

1343.

Oct. 13. Westminster. Promise to Hugh de Geneve to pay to him £3,002 sterling, wherein the king is bound to him by bills under the seals of Nicholas Usus Maris, late constable of Bordeaux, and the person supplying his place, which have been shewn by Hugh in the chancery and sent into the exchequer under the king's seal to be cancelled, by half yearly instalments of 500 marks commencing at Easter next. By p.s.

Sept. 14. Mortlake. Grant, in aid of his great charges in the king's service, to Bartholomew de Burghessh of the 100L which William Roos of Hamelak, tenant in chief, held in fee of the farm of the city of Lincoln, to hold during the nonage of the heir of the said William.

By p.s.

Ralph, baron of Stafford, and Margaret, his wife, dwelling in England, have letters nominating William de Merssh as their attorney in Ireland, for two years. Master John de Thoresby received the attorney

Oct. 15. Westminster.

Laurence de Hastynge, earl of Pembroke, staying in England, has letters nominating Ralph Meiller and Richard Dossemond as his attorneys in Ireland for three years. The chancellor received the attorneys.

Oct. 11. Westminster. Licence for the alienation in mortmain by John de Norwico to the master of the house of St. Mary, Ravenyngham, and eight chaplains to celebrate divine service as he should order in the church of St. Andrew, Ravenyngham, for the good estate of him and Margery, his wife, for their souls after death, and the souls of his father and mother and other ancestors and heirs, of a messuage and 8 acres of land in Kirkcbeicam and Stokton. By fine of 20L. Norfolk.

Oct. 18. Westminster. Grant to Roger de Langeport, king's clerk, of the chapel of St. Martin, Norhampton, in the king's gift by reason of the priory of St. Andrew, Norhampton, being in his hands on account of the war with France.

MEMBRANE 23.

Sept. 19. Westminster. Grant to the chancellor, masters and scholars of the university of Cambridge that in causes of clerks of the university arising out of loans, assessment and letting of houses, horses hired, sold or accommodated, and cloths and victuals had on credit and all manner of contracts of moveables, in Cambridge and the suburbs, the king's prohibition shall not run in future but such causes shall be decided before the chancellor or his commissaries notwithstanding such prohibitions, that every burgess shall answer for his household and servants in the purchase and sale of wine and other victuals, where a scholar is one of the parties, for all excesses and injuries in such purchase or sale, that the chancellor or his commissaries shall have cognisance of such excesses and injuries, and that they shall not be troubled on account of imprisonment of scholars or others in order to preserve the peace and quiet of the town and the punishment and chastisement of them that do wrong.

By p.s.

Sept. 30. Westminster. Grant to Adam de Walcote, king's clerk, of the prebend which Vitalis de Testa, an alien, held in the collegiate church of Wengham, in the king's gift by reason of an alienation of the advowson thereof, which is