and oil for the same to burn at all masses celebrated there and at the high parochial mass of the said church on Sundays and double feasts, and two pounds of wax every Christmas and the like on every Annunciation of St. Mary, and one pound of wax at all other feasts of the said Virgin, to burn in waxlights at the altar, and that they do all this out of the goods and rents of the chantry unless at any time these be insufficient because of war or some other reason.

On a voidance of chantry, the prior of the cathedral church of Carlisle, or the chapter of that place if the priory be void, shall nominate another chaplain, but if this be not done within forty days of the voidance, the bishop shall do this within another forty days.

The priests of the chantry shall assemble with the parish priest of Skelton every Sunday and Festival in the high mass and the canonical hours to be celebrated in the said church. Witnesses:—Anthony de Lucy, Peter de Tilliol, Robert de Vespount, Hugh de Moriceby, knights, John de Stapelton, Alan de Kyrkeby, Richard de Berwys, John de Whytebergh, Robert de Tybay, John Flemyn of Carlisle, Nicholas Spenser, Thomas Kaskel, William de Morilegh and others. Dated at Carlisle, 10 June, 1313.

The bishop also grants an indulgence of forty days to those who shall lay hand to the preservation of the rights of the chantry, ratifying besides all indulgences granted by any catholic bishop for this cause.

By fine of 1 mark. Cumberland.
