Membrane 8—cont.

1344.

Jan. 15. Westminster.

Thomas, abbot of Osneye, staying in England, has letters nominating Hugh de Croxford, his fellow-canonical, and William de Kent as his attorneys in Ireland for four years.

Edmund de Bereford, clerk, received the attorneys by writ.

Promise to Bartholomew de Burgershesh to repay by Easter 200l. lent to the king, whereof the king has ordered the sending of 100l. to James Pipe, keeper of Berwick on Tweed, for his stay there for the custody of that town, and 100l. to Southampton for wages of men going thence to Brittany on his service, and Robert de Sadyngton, William de Cusancia, John de Offord, John de Thoresby and John de Sancto Paulo, ministers of the king, promise to do their utmost to procure payment of the money.

Vacated by surrender and otherwise below.

Presentation of William de Appleton to the vicarage of the church of Ampilford, in the diocese of York.

Promise to Bartholomew de Burgershesh to repay to him by Easter 200l. lent to the king at the receipt of the exchequer by the hands of the treasurer and chamberlains. And the said Robert de Sadyngton and the others promise as above.

1343.

Acknowledgement that the king has received from Conrad Clippynge, Tidemann Lymbergh, John de Wolde, John Clippyng and their fellows, merchants of Almain, his great crown which by his order they lately had from Master Paul de Monte Florum by indenture between him and the king's clerks, Philip de Weston and William de Northwell, of the one part, and the said Conrad, Tirus de Wolde, Albert Clippyngne and the said Tidemann, of the other part, for 45,000 gold crowns, which amount to 8,062l. 10s. of sterlings, paid by them at his request; and acquittance to them of the said crown and of all sums of money which he could claim from them on account of talliages, taxations, fines or amercements, or debts or trespasses as well as of all actions personal and real; provided that they remain charged with and answer for any sums received from the collectors of customs from the time in which they have had the customs of the king's grant, or from any other of his ministers, wherewith they have not yet charged themselves in their account. It is his will also that they may come and stay under his protection within his realm with their goods and merchandise.

By K. & C.

Notification that by inspection of the chancery rolls it is found that on 27 July in his eleventh year the king appointed the prior of Wilmyngton to the custody of the priory and its lands, which he had caused to be taken into his hands on account of the war with France, to hold during pleasure at a certain farm.

Licence for Nicholas Bordoun to enfeoff Peter de Testewode and Roger de Horton of the manor of Kyngysteyngton, held in chief, and for them to re-grant the same to him and Dionisia, his wife, and the heirs of his body, with remainder to his right heirs.

By fine of 10 marks. Devon.