MEMBRANE 1.

Whereas Edward II granted licence for the alienation in mortmain by William de Ethyngham to the abbot and convent of Robertsbridge of the advowsons of the churches of Salhurst, Odymer and Mundefeld, co.
Sussex, and for the appropriation of the churches by the abbot and convent, his letters patent therein do not contain any mention of the prebend of Salhurst in the king's free chapel of Hastyngees and divers emoluments pertaining to that prebend, and although the present king for their
