February 12. Appointment of Godfrey Folejaume as second baron of the exchequer of Dublin, during pleasure. By K.

February 28. Exemption for life of Baldrick de Taverham from being put on assizes, juries or recognitions, and from appointment as mayor, sheriff, escheator, coroner or other bailiff or ministers of the king, against his will. By p.s.

February 27. By letters patent the king lately granted to Maduca late the wife of John Mareschal of Scotland, knight, an annuity of 20 marks at the exchequer, but such annuity is insufficient for her sustenance having respect to the allowance which she has to make for her children, and in consideration of her having surrendered the letters patent the king has granted her a like annuity of 40 marks, for life, until he order otherwise for her estate. By p.s.

February 15. Whereas the king by letters patent lately granted to his merchant, Conrad Clippying, 1,000l. out of the issues of the subsidy and customs in the port of Knygeston-upon-Hull as a gift, and the king’s merchants, Thomas de Melcheburn and his fellows, merchants of England, to whom he has granted the customs and subsidies due to him in all ports of the realm, have paid Conrad the same sum, as he has acknowledged before the king and council, and he has surrendered the letters patent; the king has granted to Thomas and his fellows that 1,000l. shall be allowed in sums due by them for the said subsidies and customs.

February 17. Licence, at the request of Ralph, baron Stafford, for John de Chorleton and Hawisia, his wife, to enfeoff William de Aston, parson of the church of Castelkereignon, and Thomas de Morton, chaplain, of the castle and manor of La Pole, the manors of Botilton, Talgarth, Mathinwall and Walwern with the appurtenances and the commots of Suthstradmarghell, Suthlaverhudol, Keveyon, Keveylok, Meighenryghkoit (sic), Meigheniskoyt, Trewern, Tertref and moieties remain to John son of the said John de Chorleton for life, and to John son of the same John son of John and Joan, his wife, in tail; with ultimate remainder to the right heirs of Hawisia. By p.s.

February 16. Licence after inquisition ad quod damnum taken by William de Felton, escheator in the county of Northumberland, for the alienation in mortmain by Robert de Byker to John Segerstane, hermit, of a plot of land in Biker, 200 feet square, and a lane 20 feet broad extending from the plot to the water of Tyne, held as parcel of the manor of Byker which Robert holds in chief by a service of 40s. yearly, to build a chapel in honour of the Virgin Mary and St. Anne. By p.s.