Licence for the abbot of Ramsey to grant to John Sperner of Wardeboys of Laushill and Lora, his wife, a messuage, 24 acres of land and 3 acres of wood in Laushill, held in chief, to hold in survivorship by the service of 21s. yearly.

By fine of 1 mark. Suffolk.

Whereas the king on 16 May, 16 Edward III, granted licence for the abbot and convent of Lessay in Normandy to enfeoff William de Bokelesby and Thomas de Cave, clerks, of the advowsons of the churches of Elyngham, Brocelby and Rysum, co. Lincoln, and for them to assign the same in mortmain to the master and scholars of 'la Baliolhalle,' Oxford, so that these last should be able to appropriate the churches; and whereas the abbot and convent afterwards granted these advowsons to the said William, his heirs and assigns (the said Thomas being then dead) and he by deed granted the same to Hugh de Corbrigge, master of the scholars of the hall aforesaid, and the scholars and their successors: the king confirms such grants.
