Membrane 36—cont.

Feb. 20. Westminster. Grant for life to John Wade, king’s clerk, of the deanery of the king’s free chapel of Hastynge as well as of the wardenship of the chapel, with all rights and liberties pertaining to the deanery and wardenship.

By K. on the information of Bartholomew de Burghersh.

Writ de intendendo to all canons, vicars and other ministers of the chapel.

Feb. 24. Westminster. Appointment of Thomas de Pontefracto, to purvey hay, litter, oats and other necessaries for the king’s great horses kept on this side the Trent for money to be paid at the exchequer and for his stud on this side the Trent for money to be paid by the sheriffs of the counties wherein the royal studs make stay, taking for his wages 6d. a day at the exchequer. All sheriffs and others are to be attending, consulting and helping unto him.

By K. and by p.s.

Feb. 24. Westminster. Licence for the alienation in mortmain by the prior and convent of Coventre to the prior and Carmelite Friars there of a toft in Coventre for the enlargement of their dwelling.

By K.

Feb. 27. Westminster. Licence at the request of Henry de Lancastre, earl of Derby, for the prior and convent of Motesfount to acquire in mortmain land and tenements, not held in chief, to the value of 10l. yearly. By p.s.

Feb. 26. Westminster. Whereas Adam de Culwenne of Fornshapp after the death of Gilbert de Culwenne, his father, entered as his son and heir into the lands of his father in the county of Westmoreland and held the same peaceably for a long time and now by pretext of a late adherence of the said Adam to the Scots against the king the tenements have been taken into the hands of the king; he, although by law and the custom of the realm the tenements are confiscate and could not descend to Adam by hereditary right, on testimony before him and the council that at the time of such adherence Adam was of tender age and that for sixteen years and more he has stayed in his fealty and allegiance within the realm, losing land of the value of 20l. yearly in Scotland by reason of his stay, and in consideration of good service done by him in the war of Scotland, has pardoned his said adherence and any outlawry published against him on that account and has restored to him his said lands in the county of Westmoreland, which do not exceed the value of 100s. yearly, as is said. By p.s.

Feb. 28. Westminster. Constance de Kyngeston, going on pilgrimage to Santiago, has letters nominating Henry de Eslyngton and John de la Mare as her attorneys in England until St. Peter’s Chains.

William de Emeldon, clerk, received the attorneys.

Feb. 27. Westminster. Grant to John de Sancto Paulo, king’s clerk, of the prebend or portion of Overhalle, in the collegiate church of Ledbury, in the king’s gift by reason of the voidance of the see of Hereford.

By p.s. Mandate in pursuance to the guardian of the spirituality of the said see.

March 2. Westminster. Hugh de Burgh, clerk, going to Ireland on the king’s service has letters nominating Thomas de Totewych and Thomas de Sleford as his attorneys in England for one year.

David de Woll[oure], clerk, received the attorneys.