Brother Peter de Jocellis, prior of Lewes, going beyond the seas, has letters nominating Master Matthew de Wyggenhale, parson of the church of Ely, and Peter de Spikesworth as his attorneys in England for two years. William de Melcheburne received the attorneys by writ.

Protection and safe conduct for Vitalis de Podio, citizen and merchant of Bayonne, who lately had the king's licence to buy in England 1,000 quarters of corn and take the same from the port of Bristol, for the munition of the city and the sustenance of the citizens thereof, in a ship called la Grace de Dieu of Bayonne, whereof John de Harauritz is master, and other ships of that city, and is now ready to start with the same; and for his men and servants, the said ships and corn, and his other things and goods. By C.

Appointment, until St. Peter ad Vincula, of Robert Baret to arrest and freight in the ports of Dyvelyn and Droughda and elsewhere in Ireland as many ships as will be necessary to be sent to England for the passage of Ralph de Ufford, whom the king has appointed as justiciary, and his men, horses, harness and other things, at the charges of the justiciary, any ships arrested or appointed to take to Gascony corn and other victuals lately purveyed in Ireland by the king's order excepted. By K.

Grant for life to Alice de Bedyngfeld, damsel of queen Philippa's chamber, of a tun of Gascon wine to be received in London yearly by the hands of the king's butler. By p.s.

Exemption for life of John de Hales, knight, from being put on assizes, juries or recognitions, and from appointment as mayor, sheriff, escheator, coroner or other bailiff or minister of the king, against his will. By p.s.

Henry son of Henry de Mortuo Mari, staying in England, has letters nominating John de Staunton and Thomas de Lodelowe as his attorneys in Ireland for two years.

John de Watenhull, clerk, received the attorneys.

Notification to Robert de Wodehous, archdeacon of Richmond, that the king has revoked his presentation of William de Swyneflete, king's clerk, to the vicarage of the church of Kirkeby Kendale as void by the death of William de Slavtebourn, because the latter is alive and well.

Appointment, at the request of Henry de Lancastre, earl of Derby, and because the earl has mainprised for him that he will bear himself well in the office, of John de Maydenford, to the office of second ingrosser of the exchequer of Dublin, during pleasure, with such wages and fees as others have had. By p.s.