1344.

June 12. Westminster. Grant in such terms as above to Walter de Kelsale, 'someter,' of 2d. a day, previously granted to him at the exchequer, and 10s. yearly for his robe, by the hands of the sheriff of Buckingham. By p.s.

The like to the following, by the hands of the sheriffs of the counties specified:

Alexander de Barton, 'someter,' York.
John Wulf, 'someter,' York.
William Purveance, 'someter,' York.
Peter de Bedal, 'someter,' Hertford.
Bartholomew Godeleston, 'someter,' Lincoln.
William Pynchebek, 'sumpter,' Lincoln.

The like to Thomas Werdale, by the hands of the sheriff of Oxford. By p.s.

The like to Richard de Cornewaille, in lieu of a grant of 2d. a day at the exchequer for good service to the king’s father and the king, of the said wages and yearly sum at the hands of the sheriff of Hertford. By p.s.

Mandate in pursuance to the sheriff.

June 20. Westminster. Pardon to Adam Broun ‘Graungeresman de Litteleye,’ for the death of Nicholas le Wilde of Chylton, killed at Sydenham; as it appears by the record of William de Shareshull and his fellows, justices appointed to deliver the gaol of the castle of Oxford, that he killed him in self defence.

June 27. Westminster. Licence, at the request of John de Bello Campo, for the abbot and convent of Pershore to appropriate the church of the Holy Trinity, Ekynton, in the diocese of Worcester, of their advowson, which is held of the king in frank almoine, as appears by inquisition taken by John Worthy, escheator in the county of Worcester. By K.

The like, in the king’s gift by reason of the advowson being in his hands for certain causes. By the same p.s.

July 2. Westminster. Appointment of William de Shareshull as chief baron of the exchequer, during pleasure. By K.

Mandate to the treasurer and barons of the exchequer to admit him.

Appointment of Alan de Asshe as a baron of the exchequer, during pleasure. By K.

Mandate as above.

MEMBRANE 47.

Whereas the king by letters patent lately granted licence for the alienation in mortmain by William Trussel of Cubblesdon of 40s. of rent in Shotesbrok and the advowson of the church there to six chaplains to celebrate divine service therein, and by virtue of that licence the warden of the said chantry and the chaplains, have entered upon the same and appropriated the church. At the request of the said William, the king has granted licence for John de Golyngham and Eleanor, his wife, to quit-claim for them and their heirs to the warden and chaplains their right in the rent and advowson.

By p.s.

June 20. Westminster. Pardon to Roger Rothel of Ottele for the death of Philip le Palfrayman, killed at Sydenham, as it appears by the record of William de Shareshull