1344.
Presentation of Robert de Fennycompton, warden of the chantry of the church of Wappenham, in the diocese of Lincoln, to the church of St. Leonard, Hastynges, in the diocese of Chichester, in the king's gift by reason of the temporalities of the alien abbot of St. Katharine's, by Rouen, being in his hands on account of the war with France; on an exchange of benefices with Thomas de Hampton, king's clerk.

Exemption, at the request of William de Clynton, earl of Huntingdon, and because he is incapable of bearing arms, as the king has learned on trustworthy testimony, of William le Botiller of Wemme from knighthood for life.

Richard de Eccleshale, prebendary of Tylagh, in the church of St. Laserian, Leghlyn, staying in England, has letters nominating William de Burton and Roger del Wyche as his attorneys in Ireland for one year.

Nicholas, abbot of Pippewell, going beyond the seas, has letters nominating Richard de Smetheton and Nicholas de Staunford as his attorneys in England for one year.

Nicholas, abbot of Pippewell, going beyond the seas, has letters nominating Richard de Smetheton and Nicholas de Staunford as his attorneys in England for one year.

Edmund de Grymesby, clerk, received the attorneys (attornatos).

Confirmation to the prior, canons, brethren and sisters of the hospital of St. Mary without Bisshopesgate, London, of a number of grants in mortmain by private benefactors, which are not dated or set out in full.

John de Hothom of Bondby 'le fiz,' 'chivaler,' going to Ireland, has letters nominating Geoffrey le Scrope of Pletcham and John de Naulton as his attorneys in England for one year.

Master J. de Thoresby received the attorneys.

July 30. Westminster.
Presentation of Richard Mayner of Haverberge the younger, chaplain, to the vicarage of the church of Rede, in the diocese of Norwich, void by the resignation of John, late vicar of the same, and in the king's gift by reason of the temporalities of the priory of Stoke by Clare being in his hands on account of the war with France.

July 30. Marwell.
Robert de Scardeburgh, going to Ireland on the king's service, has letters nominating Thomas Coroner and John de Speton as his attorneys in England for one year.

David de Wolloure, clerk, received the attorneys.

Appointment of William de Framelesworth, king's yeoman, to the custody of the king's stud south of the Trent, with the accustomed wages such as Menald Brokaz, deceased, used to have for the custody.

Whereas Nicholas Cosyn of London, alias Nicholas Curtoys called 'Cosyn,' alias servant of William Curteys, alias Nicholas Curteys, servant of William Curteys, lately indicted before Robert Parvyng and his fellows, justices appointed to hear and determine indictments made before John de Oxonia, late mayor of London, and others, by virtue of the king's mandate to them to enquire of wool taken from the port of London, not