1344.

Aug. 8.

Westminster.

Licence for the alienation in mortmain by Thomas de Folsham to the prior and Carmelite Friars of Lynn of a rood of land in South Lynn for the enlargement of their dwelling. Licence also for the said prior and convent to enclose a lane adjoining their dwelling, provided that they make another way of equal dimensions on their own soil for public use, and to build a bridge over the water between their dwelling and the highway in Lynn.

By fine of ¼ mark. Norfolk.

Aug. 13.

Ditton.

Presentation of William de Shrovisbury to the church of Norton Bavent, in the diocese of Salisbury.

By p.s.

Ditton.

Presentation of Peter Darran, parson of the church of St. Illogan, in the diocese of Exeter, to the church of St. Mary, Northberkhampsted, in the diocese of Lincoln; on an exchange of benefices with Robert Pollard.

By p.s.

Aug. 15.

Westminster.

Protection until Easter for brother Thomas Graculi, monk of the monastery of St. Denis in France, who has come to the king representing that he has been presented by his abbot to the priory of Dirhirst as a cell of the monastery, praying instantly that he will provide for his security in prosecuting such presentation, wherein he is threatened with violence, and for his servants; and appointment of the king's serjeant at arms, John Payn, to be attending unto him that he may go the more securely about the said business.

By p.s.

Aug. 16.

Westminster.

Grant to Walter de Wetewang, king's clerk, of the prebend of Skipwyth, in the church of St. Peter, Houden.

Mandate in pursuance to W. archbishop of York.

Aug. 20.

Westminster.

John, abbot of Whalleye, going beyond the seas, has letters nominating Ranulph de Rymyngton and Roger de Mirescogh as his attorneys in England until Easter. John de Sancto Paulo received the attorneys.

MEMBRANE 26.

Whereas Geoffrey Gilmyne was convicted before Robert Parvyng and his fellows, justices of oyer and terminer, touching indictments before John de Oxonia, mayor of London, and others appointed to enquire of wool taken without the realm not cocketed or customed, and committed to Newgate prison on that account, and whereas he has offered before those appointed to examine such indictments and receive reasonable fines from those indicted, a fine of 40s. to have pardon for his trespasses; the king, on testimony before the council that his lands and goods are not of that value and he can only pay such fine by the aid of his friends, has accepted the same and pardoned the trespasses and any consequent outlawries.

By K. & C. and by fine as above.

The like to the following:—

William atte Verie.

Robert de Pykenham.

By fine of 18s. 4d.

By fine of 20s.

Aug. 4.

Castle Rising.

Licence for the alienation in mortmain by the prior and convent of Kyme to the abbess and convent of Elnestowe of 10 marks of rent out of their manor of Thorpe by Tymberlond and other lands in the county of Lincoln.

By p.s.