1344.

Sept. 16.
Corfe Castle.

Grant to William Longleys, to whom the king lately granted for life the bailiwick of the chief forestership of Inglewode forest, that, for the king's profit and the better keeping of the forest, he may on their making oath grant to knights and other good men of the country in the circuit of the forest, whenever it shall seem to be for the king's honour, one course of stag, hind, buck or doe within the forest, also that he may give of the king's venison to dames and other noble ladies, as well as to women sick and pregnant, as often as shall seem meet, and that he may take himself or by others any deer in the forest wounded with an arrow or otherwise, which cannot survive, and do with it as shall be most for the king's profit.

By p.s.

Sept. 30.
Tower of London.

Presentation of John Oliver to the prebend of Wertlyng, Hoo and Nennefeld, in the king's free chapel of Hastynge, in the diocese of Chichester.

By p.s.

MEMBRANE 24.

Oct. 6.
Waltham.

Calling to mind the faithful and profitable services rendered to his mother, queen Isabella, and his brother, John, late duke (sic) of Cornwall, by John de Hull, king's clerk, canon in the church of St. Mary, Lincoln, the king at his instance has granted that he may do as he will in the matter of residence in the church of Lincoln, after the custom of the same church, in the discharge of his prebend in person and his own other private business. Furthermore the king holds him as one of his chaplains and members of his household as well when absent from court as when present in it, and has taken him and his benefices, possessions and goods into his special protection, for life.

By p.s.

Oct. 8.
Waltham.

Presentation of John de Bynbrok, parson of the church of Sywaldeby, in the diocese of Lincoln, to the church of Musarder, in the diocese of Worcester, in the king's gift by reason of his custody of the lands and heir of Edmund, earl of Kent; on an exchange of benefices with William Brose.

Oct. 8.
Westminster.

Presentation of Oliver de Dynelaye to the church of Estichenore, in the diocese of Chichester, in the king's gift by reason of the temporalities of the priory of Boxgrave being in his hands on account of the war with France.

Sept. 2.
Waltham.

Licence for William Daunvers and Margaret, his wife, and John de Borhunte and Mary, his wife, to grant to Peter de Hoo and Walter de Haywood and the heirs of Peter the manor of Benham, held in chief as is said, and for them to re-grant the same to the said William and Margaret for life, with remainder to the said John and Mary and the heirs of John.

By p.s.

Oct. 8.
Westminster.

Pardon to Alice late the wife of John de Lutryngton of her waiver in the county of Westmoreland for non-appearance before the justices of the Bench to answer touching a plea of trespass of Robert de Thrillekeld, on certificate by John de Stonore, chief justice, that she has now surrendered to the Flete prison.

Oct. 12.
Westminster.

 Whereas on 15 March, in his third year, the king granted to the abbot, prior and convent of Leycestre, in consideration of losses sustained by them in the time in which the king with his army was at Leycestre going against certain then setting themselves against him, that whenever the